Welcome to the University of Nebraska's Memorial Stadium...

Athletic Director Bill Byrne

On behalf of the Nebraska Athletic Department, and all the wonderful fans in the State of Nebraska, welcome to Memorial Stadium for today's game.

Marilyn and I continue to be impressed by the wonderful Husker fans. It is this unbelievable "Big Red" support that enables Nebraska to continue its NCAA-record sellout streak.

We are continuing our commitment to make improvements and innovations which will add to your enjoyment of game day at Memorial Stadium.

The Athletic Department is proud of the sincere sportsmanship extended by our fans. One of the noted traditions that sets Nebraska apart from most institutions is the warm and courteous welcome visiting teams and their fans receive. Tough competition and outstanding sportsmanship are vital components of intercollegiate athletics and a goal of ours at the University of Nebraska. On behalf of all Nebraskans, I would like to welcome visiting teams, fans, their coaches and student-athletes who will meet the Huskers on the field today. We hope that you enjoy your visit and the competition.

Go ahead and call it Scoring Explosion Part II. On its way to a perfect 4-0 ledger, Nebraska's run away and hide offense has piled up more points than any team in the school's storied 106-year history. Averaging 688 yards, Nebraska leads the nation in total offense, rushing offense and scoring offense.

Today, Pac-10 foe Washington State (2-1), a team that defeated then-No. 16 UCLA, 24-15, last week in Pullman, will try to derail the Huskers offensive locomotive. Perhaps the biggest test of the non-conference schedule, WSU owns the best defense that second-ranked Nebraska will face to date. Last week, the Cougars limited the Bruins to 38 first-half yards and today will have the opportunity to do something no Husker opponent has yet accomplished--hold Nebraska to less than 650 yards of total offense.

After a 49-7 pasting of Pacific last week, Nebraska is ready for a competitive game from the Cougars. Said quarterback Tommie Frazier after the UOP game, "I think we're really due for a real challenge now. Since the start all we've really been asking for is someone to come in and give us a challenge."

Frazier and the rest of the Huskers will get what they asked for in a Washington State team that has won two straight after dropping its season opener to Pittsburgh, 17-13. The Cougars are resting just outside the Associated Press top 25 poll with 57 votes after victories over Montana (38-21) and UCLA.

Ranked second nationally last season, Washington State's defense lost eight starters, all of whom signed professional contracts. But Cougar Coach Mike Price has a young squad that has allowed only one run of 20 yards or more this season and is ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense. In the last four years, WSU has held 24 of 37 opponents to less than 100 yards on the ground.

Leading the charge this season are linebackers James Darling and Chris Hayes, who have combined for 50 total tackles, including 11.5 for loss.

Offensively, Washington State will look to junior signal caller Chad Davis, whom Price calls one of the nation's top 10 quarterbacks. Davis transferred from Oklahoma after the 1992 season and became the Cougars' starter as a sophomore. He was named the 1994 Alamo Bowl MVP after leading WSU to a 10-3 win over Baylor. Running back Frank Madu, who rushed for 110 yards against UCLA last week, is averaging nearly 100 yards per game.

In the midst of a five-game homestand, Nebraska will try to extend the nation's second-longest home winning streak to 26 games in Memorial Stadium's 400th game.

Nebraska and Washington State have met three times in school history with the Cougars holding a 3-0 lead. The last time the two schools met, WSU came to Lincoln and handed the No. 15 Cornhuskers a 19-10 setback in the 1977 season opener. Price was an assistant for WSU's Warren Powers in that contest. Nebraska dominated the game, gaining 470 yards to Washington State's 294, but fumbled three times inside the Cougar 10-yard line. It marked the first time Coach Tom Osborne had taken a loss in a home opener. WSU also defeated Nebraska in the season opener in 1957, a 34-12 decision in Lincoln, and beat NU in the final game of 1920, 21-20.

All signs point to Nebraska ending its losing streak to Washington State. Averaging an even 60 points per game, compared to the 56.5 points per game production of the original 1983 scoring explosion, the 1995 offensive engine is equipped with enough interchangeable parts to keep chugging all the way to the Frito Lay Fiesta Bowl. Two standout quarterbacks, a stable of running backs, a bevy of talented receivers, and a huge offensive line are capable of keeping Nebraska atop the nation's major polls.

On its way to a second-consecutive NCAA rushing title, Nebraska's running game is averaging a nation-leading 507.0 yards per game, 189 yards more than second place Iowa State. Two weeks ago against Arizona State, I-back Clinton Childs started and rushed for a career-high 143 yards and two touchdowns. Last week, Damon Benning got the starting nod and carried the pigskin 10 times for a career-high 173 yards and three touchdowns.

And there is more. True freshman Ahman Green, backing up both Childs and Benning, rushed for 111 and 112 yards against ASU and Pacific, respectively, and has scored six touchdowns in his young career. James Sims, yet another talented back, has scored three times on 216 yards.

The rush doesn't rest only on the I-backs. Quarterbacks Frazier and Brook Berringer have combined for 251 yards and a 6.6 per carry average while directing the Husker option game. At fullback, Jeff Makovicka, Joel Makovicka and Brian Schuster are averaging over 5.5 yards per carry. A total of 18 running plays have gone for over 25 yards this season as NU has scored 26 rushing TDs.

Frazier, NU's Heisman Trophy candidate, has passed for four touchdowns to go along with his four on the ground. Completing passes at a 55.6 clip, Frazier ranks second in the Big Eight passing efficiency category. Responsible for an average of 150 yards per game, he is sixth in school history with 2,568 yards passing.

Besides leading the country in three offensive statistical categories, Nebraska also tops the nation with a 45.7 net punting average. First-year punter Jesse Kosch has stepped in for Darin Erstad and performed admirably, booming a career-long 74-yarder against Arizona State, earning that week's AT&T Long Distance Award.

Defensively, Nebraska ranks fourth in the Big Eight, allowing 318 yards per game. Rover Mike Minter leads the team in tackles, followed by linebackers Phil Ellis and Ryan Terwilliger. Nebraska opponents are averaging 16.5 points a game and have been sacked 10 times.

Junior college transfer Terrell Farley has been one of the team leaders at the Will linebacker position. Nebraska's Big Eight Defensive Player-of-the-Week nominee against Pacific, Farley is second on the team with three sacks and four tackles for loss. Twice this season he has run back an interception for a touchdown.

With the rest of the Big Eight schedule looming ahead, Nebraska can ill afford to overlook a Washington State team that would love to put its claws in a nationally-ranked team for the second straight week.

Nebraska Hall of Fame: Prior to today's game, 13 former players will be honored for their induction to the Nebraska Hall of Fame. Please see page 159 of today's program for further information.

Next Week: Nebraska takes a week off, before continuing its homestand with a 1 p.m. contest against Big Eight foe Missouri in the annual Kick-in-a-Can Day sponsored by Lincoln and Omaha Food Banks. Fans are asked to bring a can of food to the collection bins outside the gates ore $1. Washington State plays host to Oregon State.

Big Eight Action: There are only three other games involving Big Eight teams today. In a clash of top 10 teams, No. 4 Colorado travels to No. 10 Oklahoma, while Oklahoma State visits nationally-ranked Tennessee and Kansas State plays host to Northern Illinois.

Husker Sports: The No. 1 ranked Husker volleyball team plays host to Oklahoma at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the NU Coliseum. The Huskers opened Big Eight play at Colorado last Wednesday. Nebraska will also play at home on Wednesday, Oct. 4 against Kansas.

Extra Point Club Luncheon: On Monday's following each Husker game this season, one of NU's full-time coaches will address the Extra Point Club at the University Club in the Stuart Building. This Monday's speaker will be Receivers Coach Ron Brown. Another weekly gathering is the Big Red Breakfast on Thursday morning's at the Omaha Holiday Inn Central. This week's speakers are Athletic Director Bill Byrne and Director of Athletic Performance Boyd Epley.

A Message From The Interim Chancellor

Committed To Academic Excellence

Teaching always has been a paramount mission of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. We are in the business of educating young people for the future. Our graduates are our product; their education is our process. And we believe that recent steps taken to bolster our academic programs and services have made UNL — always known for strong teaching — an even stronger institution.

We have seen dramatic growth in enrollment of high ability students at UNL in the past few years. We are certainly pleased by the overall quality of our undergraduate student body. Several steps we have taken recently have helped to ensure that students are prepared to succeed at UNL and that while they are here, their educational experiences are first-rate.

We had nearly 600 students apply for admission to our formal Honors Program in 1995, as opposed to just under 300 in 1994. Of those admitted to the program, 382 enrolled at UNL this fall, as compared to 175 last year.

What's behind the growth in the Honors Program? We know our programs are exceptional and positive word-of-mouth commentary is reaching back into the high schools and hometowns about the strength of our program. And we are starting to see "family" repeats, where one sibling begins the program and others join him or her when they come to UNL.

We have placed increased emphasis on recruitment of top scholars to UNL. The Office of Admissions has assigned an admissions adviser to work with high school counselors to help identify and recruit high ability students. This year, we also created a book scholarship that pays for an Honors Program student's academic textbooks. The scholarship remains in effect as long as the student remains in the Honors Program and remains in good academic standing.

Those enrolled in the Honors Program also are eligible to live on Honors Floors in the residence halls. Five floors in the Neihardt Residence Complex with some 142 students are Honors Floors this year, up from two floors in previous years. The benefits of residential life are significant. Students who feel a connection are more likely to succeed and flourish at the university. And for many students, particularly those from smaller high schools, life on an Honors Floor is the first time they have interacted with high ability peers on a regular basis.

Growth in our honors programs parallels changes in our general education curriculum and the overall boosting of admissions requirements to the institution. Both of these changes have been instituted to ensure that students are prepared to succeed once they arrive at UNL, and to ensure that their experiences here are of exceptional quality.

The general education curriculum, known as the Comprehensive Education Program was introduced this fall for all first-year students. Under this program all students, regardless of their academic majors, will meet a core set of requirements. Each student will take 10 courses designated as integrative studies. These courses are designed to challenge their thinking, encourage their writing, prompt them to analyze controversies and explore assumptions, and urge them to consider human diversity. They also will take nine "essential studies" courses in eight domains of knowledge: communications; mathematics and statistics; science and technology; human behavior, culture and social organization (two courses); the arts; history; the humanities; and race, ethnicity and gender. They will take a course in information research and data retrieval. And they will be encouraged to round out their academic experiences through extensive co-curricular activities such as attending theatrical or performing arts performances, volunteering in clubs and service organizations, and involvement in other personal growth activities.

While the new admissions requirements will not be fully implemented until the fall of 1997, we already are seeing students whose high school experiences mirror the new qualifications. Clearly students who are better prepared in high school have a far greater chance of succeeding in college. Expanded requirements in the areas of English, mathematics, science and foreign language give students greater flexibility in exploring career choices.

Despite changes in approach and delivery, the noble goals of higher education remain constant. We will continue to work to improve the academic experiences of students who attend the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Husker Center Graham Takes Reins of

By Dave Ebb

While spending his high school summers working as a hired hand on the Don Hickey Ranch just outside of Denton, Texas, senior center Aaron Graham dreamed of someday owning his own ranch.

Now, as the lone holdover from Nebraska's vaunted "Pipeline" offensive line of 1994, Graham has been thrust into a different type of leadership role of as he takes the reins of this year's front five.

A hard life to some, Graham said he would like to be affiliated with the good old boys who make a living raising cattle.

"I really enjoy the people who are associated with the ranching and farming business," Graham said. "It seems the majority of them are down-to-earth people."

Nebraska offensive line coach Milt Tenopir said Graham deserves to be associated with the elite centers in school history, including two-time Outland Trophy and Lombardi award winner Dave Rimington.

"Aaron does some things better than others, he's certainly among the top centers we've had here," said Tenopir, NU's offensive line coach of 22 seasons. "He's one of the best. He really makes us jell as an offensive line. Aaron is a very complete football player, he's done everything he could do to make himself into the type of player he is."

Much of the credit for last year's perfect 13-0 season and third national championship in school history was attributed to the Huskers' mammoth offensive front wall. Pundits around the nation touted the Nebraska Pipeline as perhaps the greatest group in the history of college football. NU's offensive line paved the way for Husker skill players like a combine going through a wheat field.

The Pipeline was so well publicized, their names and faces became familiar in households throughout the country and added to the lore of a school steeped in tradition for its standout interior blockers.

Through spring football and fall camp, Husker fans and members of the media questioned whether NU would be able to repeat as national champions, when faced with the difficult task of filling the shoes of four outstanding interior lineman. Four gaping vacancies were left with the departure of first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American Rob Zatechka, Joel Wilks, consensus first-team All-American Brenden Stai and consensus first-team All-American and Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert.

Despite losing 80 percent of the starters from the most ballyhooed offensive line in school history, the 1995 Husker offense has churned out offensive production faster than a grounds crew rolls out the tarpelin at a baseball stadium.

In its first four games of the season, the Husker offense is producing numbers at record pace. One of the key reasons for NU's early success is the man in the middle who sets each play in motion when he snaps the ball. Graham started the last four games of 1993 and has been entrenched as NU's No. 1 center ever since.

Nebraska's retooled offensive line has been a force early in the season. The Graham-guided front wall has punished opponents defense's through four games and has posted staggering statistics in the process. The Huskers currently lead the nation in rushing (507.0 yards per game), total offense (688.5 yards per game) and scoring offense (60 points per game). NU is on pace to break its all-time scoring record, when the Turner Gill-led "Scoring Explosion" offense averaged 52.0 points per game in 1983.

Tenopir said he hasn't been surprised by the early offensive prowess of this year's team.

"You could tell there was a lot of potential in the spring," Tenopir said of NU's interior line. "This bunch is going to go until the whistle blows. They haven't taken any shortcuts. The spirit and attitude that they have as a whole is probably unsurpassed."

Tenopir said the significance of Graham's influence on this year's line should not be underestimated.

"He's a tremendous leader, not only by example, but in instruction of younger players. Aaron's a tremendous asset, not only for the entire football team, but for me personally. He's very knowledgeable of the game and he's been great helping to school the younger people. He tends to be a stabilizing factor in there. He keeps the younger guys, as much as he can, at an even, low keel, which is what we prefer."

The hulking behemoths of Nebraska's front wall have been flagged for only two penalties thus far and have allowed just one sack, while posting 270 pancake blocks. With four successive blowouts, Graham's snaps have been limited, but he's averaging more than eight pancakes a game.

Graham seemingly plays his best in big games. In 1993 and 1994, he posted season highs in knockdown blocks against Colorado, with 15 and 12, respectively.

After a stalwart high school career, Graham was coveted by nearly every Southwest Conference school and number of other nationally prominent programs.

Nebraska nearly lost a recruiting battle to Texas A&M for Graham's services, but he accepted a scholarship offer from the Huskers and journeyed to Lincoln from the Lone Star State.

Graham said the first letter he received during the recruiting process was from the Huskers, who contacted him during his junior season. Graham took unofficial visits to Texas and Texas A&M and official visits to Oklahoma, Texas Tech and Nebraska. Graham was contacted by schools across the nation, but said he wanted to stay relatively close to home so his family would be able to watch him play.

A prep standout at Denton, Texas, Graham and his parents formulated a five-point plan to help ease his selection of a school. The Graham Five-Point Plan: 1. Head Coach. "Immediately after meeting Coach Osborne, I could easily see his character and the kind of person he is," Graham said. 2. Strong academic program. Nebraska leads the nation in GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and its academic program was voted the best in the nation by College Athletic Management magazine in 1991. 3. Play for a winning program. Nebraska has posted an NCAA record 33-consecutive winning seasons and has played in an NCAA record 26-straight bowl games. 4. Best possible position coaches. NU players have claimed more Outland Trophy's (seven) than any other school under the direction on NU's offensive line coaches. 5. Strength program. NU's 30,000 square foot weight room facility is the largest on any college campus and has been a model for schools nationwide.

Despite Nebraska meeting Graham's five criteria, Texas A&M remained his first choice. But during his senior year, Aggie coaches phoned Graham and said they were going to offer a scholarship to Dallas native Darrius Smith, their top choice at center. Graham then committed to NU.

"Within hours after I committed to Nebraska, the recruiting coordi-

Senior co-captain Aaron Graham is a stabilizing force for a rebuilt offensive line, which has enabled NU to lead the nation in rushing, total offense and scoring offense.

Revamped Husker Offensive Line in 1995

nator at Texas A&M called me and said 'they made a big mistake and they were willing to revoke the offer to Smith.' My mom and I were really upset. That was the school that I originally wanted to attend, but they didn't show the interest in me. It was an easy decision to say no and I knew from that point on, Nebraska was the place where I was going to go."

After making a decision to bypass the Southwest Conference and embark on his collegiate career at an out-of-state institution, Graham said there were a few people who second-guessed his decision, but not many.

"People in this state have such great support for the program and really rally around the Cornhuskers, but the thing Nebraskans don't understand is the amount of respect the University of Nebraska has throughout the country. People down south think Nebraska's program is above any in the Southwest Conference or any other southern school, because of the great reputation they have. It wasn't a hard decision to go to a school like Nebraska. If there was another school in the Southwest Conference that had a reputation like Nebraska, then I would have taken a lot more flak about coming to Nebraska. But people down there understand the type of program that Coach Osborne runs."

The road from Denton to Lincoln was made more difficult for Graham, when in May of his senior year of high school, his mother, Stephanie, died of leukemia. After arriving at NU for his first year at the collegiate level, Graham said at times it was hard to deal with his mother's death, but the Husker coaching staff helped comfort him.

"The one thing that you need to do with any young kid, and Aaron in particular, when he came in under a tough situation is to make them feel a part of the family," Tenopir said of Graham's arrival to Lincoln. "We tried to get him involved as quickly as possible. Not only did the coaching staff do that, but the rest of his teammates at that time put an arm around him and took him under their wing. It was a healthy situation for a kid that was emotionally hurting at the time."

Graham redshirted his first year at NU, then backed up Jim Scott and Terris Chorney at center, but was the Huskers' No. 1 deep snapper as he lettered as a redshirt freshman. Graham has maintained his role as NU's long snapper and is also the center on extra points and field goals.

Finding a reliable long snapper can be a challenge for many teams at the collegiate and professional levels, but the steady Graham has been nearly flawless in that role for the Huskers, despite his unorthodox style. Unlike most deep snappers, Graham doesn't look at the punter before the snap. Instead, he whips his head down at the snap, which enables him to deliver a quicker, more powerful toss. Graham said Coach Osborne was initially weary of his unique style, but has grown accustomed to the sandy-haired Texan's no-look delivery.

Not just a standout on the field, Graham is the epitome of the term student-athlete. An animal science major, Graham carries a cumulative grade point average of 3.328. In 1994, he earned GTE/CoSIDA second-team Academic All-America honors and is positioned to garner first-team honors in 1995 to extend Nebraska's streak of having at least one first-team Academic All-American each of the last nine seasons.

Graham said from the time he arrived at NU, he set a goal of earning academic recognition.

"When I first arrived here, it was hard not to notice the pictures of the Academic All-Americans on the wall in the Hewitt Center," said Graham, a two-time Academic All-Big Eight selection. "I knew that if I worked hard enough, I had the ability to get my picture on that wall. Hopefully, I can earn first-team honors this year. I wanted to leave here not just being a good football player. I wanted to have a degree, a degree that I could be proud of and say I worked hard to achieve."

Graham said his lifelong goal has been to play professionally in the National Football League, but if he doesn't earn a shot to play at the next level, he's well prepared for life after football. After this semester, Graham will need only two hours in the spring to graduate in May, 1996.

Personal Profile

Name: Aaron Graham

Hometown: Denton, Texas

Parents: David and the late Stephanie Graham

Sisters: Kim Graham (25)

Hobbies: hunting, fishing and playing the guitar

Favorite Athletes: Hakeem Olajuwon, Brenden Stai, Zach Wiegert, Rob Zatechka

Favorite Musician: Waylon Jennings

Favorite TV show: Discovery Channel

Favorite Movie: Lonesome Dove

Favorite Actor: Tommy Lee Jones

Most Influential Role Model: My father

Best Moment as a Husker: The 1995 Orange Bowl. During a fourth-quarter TV timeout, looking at all 11 Miami players who had a part of their body, other than their feet, touching the grass. All five of us on the offensive line knew we had won right then, because of all the conditioning and strength training we had done.

Why Nebraska: 1. Head Coach Tom Osborne. 2. Strong academic program. 3. Year in, year out, Nebraska has a winning program. 4. Offensive line coaches. 5. Great strength and conditioning program.

Where do you see yourself 10 years from now: Raising cattle on my ranch in Texas or Nebraska.

"I'd really like to try to play pro football," the 6-4, 285-pound senior said. "If I was unable to make a team as a center, I know there are a lot of people out there that are looking for someone who can deep snap and snap on field goals and extra points. That's the No. 1 thing I'd like to try. If the NFL doesn't work out for me, I've made it a two-way road I can take. Hopefully, I can use my animal science degree to get accepted into vet school."

But for now, Graham said he wants to focus on this season and help Nebraska earn its second-consecutive national title. The soft-spoken Texan said he's enjoyed his time in Nebraska and playing in front of a sold-out audience each fall Saturday.

"When 76,000 people are yelling and screaming, you get the feeling that you're Superman," Graham said of the frenzied Husker fans who have packed Memorial Stadium for an NCAA-record 204 consecutive games. "The tunnel walk is an absolutely incredible feeling. I can't imagine going to a school where they draw only 20,000 to 25,000 fans each week."

Graham said he will always cherish the friendships he's made through the Nebraska football program. He has lived with Husker linebacker Phil Ellis for four years and their Lincoln residence resembles a taxidermist's sales floor. Nearly every wall of their east Lincoln dwelling is adorned with the fruits of a successful hunting trip.

Graham learned to enjoy hunting with his father, as the two made numerous trips to a central Texas game preserve as a youth to hunt deer and quail and to fish for bass.

An avid fisherman and hunter, Graham said he finds refuge in the wide open spaces of the nation's heartland a couple of times a week during hunting season. Going to school in Nebraska has afforded Graham the luxury of experiencing several types of hunting not available in the Lone Star State. He said he has enjoyed hunting pheasant and geese, which are prevalent in this area.

Hoping to follow the footsteps of his former Pipeline teammates to a career in the NFL, Graham has maintained close contact with Stai, Wiegert and Zatechka. He said the trio have given him pointers on what it will take to excel at the professional level.

"The fantasy dream of mine would be to play five or six years in the NFL and maybe make enough money to be able to go back to Texas or Nebraska and use my animal science degree to start up a ranch."

With an eye on the NFL and a future in the ranching business, the leader of NU's line is content to hold the reins of one of the most potent offense's in the nation.

The University of Nebraska

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

The University's most comprehensive campus, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln includes the agricultural components organized within the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. Other campuses of the system include the University of Nebraska at Omaha, the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha and the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is Nebraska's only land-grant university and its major comprehensive institution of higher education. UNL accounts for 52 percent of all baccalaureate degrees granted throughout the NU system.

For its 24,700 students from all parts of the world, UNL offers a wide range of undergraduate, professional, and graduate programs including those leading to the doctorate. In addition to teaching, UNL faculty members are involved actively in research and educational outreach programs. UNL's student body is composed of students from all 50 states, the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands, as well as 99 foreign countries. There are approximately 1,300 academic faculty members.

UNL has a three-part mission of teaching, research and service. A new Comprehensive General Education Curriculum was introduced in the fall of 1995 with the goals of broadening the depth and scope of all undergraduate education.

Quality instruction is emphasized in UNL's nine undergraduate colleges, the Graduate College and the College of Law. The Colleges of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Fine and Performing Arts, Human Resources and Family Sciences, Journalism and Mass Communications, and Teachers College offer more than 130 undergraduate degree programs leading to career opportunities in the arts, the sciences, the humanities and the professions.

Because of its leadership in the area of undergraduate teaching, UNL was asked in 1994 to participate with a dozen other institutions in a project to improve and reward undergraduate teaching. UNL was cited as one of the nation's top 20 universities for efficiency and value by U.S. News and World Report in 1994 for offering quality education at a reasonable cost.

The institution also has shown growth in research output and funding over the past five years. In 1994, UNL was named a Research Institution I by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. This elevates UNL to an elite group of just 86 universities nationwide to be granted the highest classification by the Carnegie Foundation. The classification means UNL is a leading institution in terms of baccalaureate and graduate education, in its commitment to research excellence and in federal funding. Additionally, the University is one of just 58 members of the American Association of Universities, one of the oldest and most prestigious associations of institutions of higher education. The University was the first college west of the Mississippi River to confer graduate degrees.

Graduate Studies at UNL offers 32 programs leading the doctoral degree and 63 master's degrees under 14 titles.

Grants and contracts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1994, indicated a record receipt of $76.3 million. In addition, the National Science Foundation, in a summary of funds spent for research showed that UNL's expenditures totaled $102.7 million in 1994, the first time UNL has surpassed the $100 million milestone.

A new haven for science and technology, the George W. Beadle Center for Genetics and Biomaterials Research, was occupied in the summer of 1995. The center contains state-of-the-art laboratories devoted to research and development in biotechnology, biochemistry, biological materials and related fields. The Center is named in honor of a Nobel Prize-winning geneticist and UNL alumnus.

Over the years, alumni such as authors Willa Cather and Mari Sandoz, legal educator Roscoe Pound, anthropologist Loren Eiseley, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalists Jim Risser and Marjie Lundstrom, presidential advisers Ted Sorensen and Clayton Yeutter and scientists such as Beadle and fellow Nobel laureate Donald Crum, inventor Harold "Doc" Edgerton and computer pioneer Jay Forrester have enriched the University's tradition of leadership and scholarly excellence.

Through its service programs, UNL reaches thousands of citizens each year. The Cooperative Extension Service provides all Nebraskans with information and assistance in agriculture and natural resources, home economics, family living, 4-H and youth development and community resource development. Continuing Studies offers alternatives to formal on-campus education with programs such as summer reading courses, evening classes, independent study by correspondence, telecourses and study tours. Working with the private sector, UNL was the first land-grant university in the nation to offer an interdisciplinary major in agriculture and business and has created the nation's first franchise studies program.

The University is the headquarters of the Nebraska Educational Telecommunications Network, which delivers educational programming as well as public television and public radio statewide. NET is considered a national leader in the field of educational television.

The campus is home to the nationally renowned Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, the Christlieb Collection of Western Art and the Lied Center for Performing Arts. The University of Nebraska State Museum boasts a world-class fossil collection and helped develop Ashfall Fossil Beds State Park, which has become one of Nebraska's premier tourist attractions since it opened in 1991.

Noted for its outstanding athletic programs, UNL is also noted for the quality of its academic programs for student athletes. Its Hewitt Training Center for student athletes provides computer labs, study areas, career counseling and other academic support services. UNL leads the nation in Academic All-Americans for all sports, including football.

UNL's Memorial Stadium has sold out for every game since Nov. 1, 1962. On football Saturdays, the 76,000-seat stadium becomes Nebraska's third-largest city.

Bill Byrne

Athletic Director

A new chapter in the Huskers' rich athletic tradition began on June 26, 1992, when former Nebraska Chancellor Dr. Graham Spanier announced that Bill Byrne would succeed long-time athletic director Bob Devaney. Byrne became the 10th athletic director in school history and the third since 1962.

An energetic 50-year-old, Byrne came to Nebraska following a highly successful eight-year stint as athletic director at the University of Oregon. Recently re-elected as secretary-treasurer of the College Football Association and a member of that organization's board of directors, Byrne heads into his third football season as NU athletic director.

A tireless worker ever since he arrived in Lincoln as athletic director-designate on Nov. 1, 1992, Byrne officially took the reins of the athletic department on Jan. 4, 1993. During his first year on the job, Byrne traveled with nearly every Husker team at least once and canvassed the state of Nebraska, visiting with boosters, while learning the needs and concerns of Husker fans everywhere and making more than 150 speeches in the process.

Among his many accomplishments at Nebraska, Byrne has been instrumental in upgrading Husker facilities, including the addition of two HuskerVision replay boards at Memorial Stadium last season. Besides becoming the first collegiate-owned venue to feature replay boards for its fans, Memorial Stadium was recently renovated to include a state-of-the-art training room, expanded coaches and players locker rooms, a new public address system, expanded restrooms and concession stands. In addition, section 14, which collapsed in the spring of 1993, was rebuilt to offer increased seating for disabled fans.

Other recent additions include a production studio in West Stadium and new scoreboards at the NU Softball Complex, Buck Beltzer Stadium and the Devaney Center indoor track.

Byrne's plans for the future could lead to even more success for the Huskers. Future Memorial Stadium renovations include a new press box, skyboxes and more concession stands. The Bob Devaney Sports Center, which houses nine of Nebraska's athletic teams, has plans for a new sound system and weight room. Byrne enlisted the Kansas City, Mo., firm of HOK Sport to develop a master facilities plan for the Huskers' athletic program.

Under Byrne's leadership, the Husker athletic department has never missed a beat. In fact, during the 1994-95 academic year, Nebraska:

- ◆ Won its 16th straight Big Eight Conference all-sports championship.
- ◆ Won nine of 20 conference championships (football, women's gymnastics, women's swimming, women's indoor and outdoor track, men's indoor and outdoor track, volleyball and wrestling), equaling 1994's total. In addition, the Nebraska football team won its third national title and first since 1971.
- ◆ Finished in the upper division of the conference standings in 13 of 20 sports, and was ninth overall in the Sears National Director's Cup all-sports race.
- ◆ Produced its nation-leading 11th NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winner in Rob Zatechka.
- ◆ Added a state-of-the-art sound system and two HuskerVision video replay boards to Memorial Stadium, the first of their kind at a collegiate venue.
- ◆ Added women's soccer as a varsity sport at Nebraska in the fall of 1994, giving the Huskers a Big Eight-leading 22-sport offering.
- ◆ In 1994, Byrne led Nebraska's first team fund-raising campaign, which increased proceeds by over a half a million dollars.

In addition to maintaining a high standard of excellence on the playing field, Byrne has successfully reorganized the department for the 21st century. Stressing a more efficient use of resources, Byrne is in the process of creating a one-stop shopping type of organization so that the needs of student-athletes, fans and contributors can be met as promptly as possible.

A member of the NCAA special events committee, Byrne is recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics. He is continuing to make an aggressive effort, along with other Big Eight athletic directors, to place Nebraska and other conference officials on key NCAA committees in an effort to better represent the views of Big Eight member institutions. He was also instrumental in the development of the Big 12 Conference.

In conjunction with the rest of the UNL administration, Byrne has arranged to use the Husker football and basketball networks to promote causes and concerns which are important to the entire University community, including the institution's increased role in research.

The continued rise of the overall Husker program should come as no surprise considering Byrne's previous accomplishments at Oregon. He assumed the duties of Oregon director of athletics in May of 1984, as one of the youngest directors in Division I athletics. Byrne established fund-raising offices in Portland and southern Oregon and established a full-time marketing and promotions operation, which blossomed to encompass the Oregon Sports Network for statewide in-house production of Ducks' athletic contests on radio and television.

One of Byrne's most noted accomplishments at Oregon was the three-year construction project to build the $11 million Casanova Athletic Center, the home of the Ducks' football team and athletic department offices. The project, $19 million in all, also included a new press box, sky suites and a complete renovation of Autzen Stadium. It was completed in 1991 and two years later, the facility's Hall of Champions was dedicated in Byrne's honor.

Respected by his peers, Byrne served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in 1991-92, and is in his fifth year on that organization's executive committee. He was also chairman of the Pac-10 Conference executive committee and was named national fund-raiser-of-the-year by the National Athletic Fundraisers.

Born in Boston, Byrne grew up in Idaho and attended Idaho State University, where he was student body president. He received bachelor's and master's degrees in business at the Pocatello school in 1967 and 1971, respectively. Before going to Oregon in 1982, he was assistant athletic director at San Diego State (1980-82), executive director of the New Mexico Lobo Club (1976-79) and director of alumni relations at Idaho State (1971-76).

Byrne's wife, Marilyn, an educator by profession, is the Master of Education Dean for Doane College. The Byrnes have two sons and a new grandchild, Nicholas. Nicholas' parents, Greg and Regina, live in Medford, Ore. where Greg is an athletic fund raiser for the University of Oregon. Their other son, Bill, works as a service manager for Visa in San Mateo, Calif.

Bob Devaney

Athletic Director Emeritus

When one talks about the success of University of Nebraska athletic teams, one name tops the list of persons responsible—Bob Devaney. On Jan. 4, 1993, Devaney stepped down as athletic director and turned the reins over to Bill Byrne. Now beginning his 34th year with the athletic department, Devaney has focused his attention on fund-raising and continues to serve as Athletic Director Emeritus. He was recently inducted in the NACDA Hall of Fame for his numerous contributions as athletic director.

From the time he took over for Tippy Dye in 1967, to his final year as the Husker Athletic Director in 1992, his vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence earned him a reputation as one of the nation's outstanding athletic directors. Those same characteristics helped make him a football coaching legend. A 1981 inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, under Devaney's leadership Nebraska developed one of the nation's most successful all-around athletic programs.

Devaney arrived in 1962, charged with the mission of building a successful football program, and he succeeded far beyond anyone's expectations. During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101 games, lost only 20 and tied two for a winning percentage of .829. His career mark of 136-30-7 (.806) ranked him as the nation's winningest active coach at the time of his retirement in 1973, and he ranks 11th on the all-time list today, just behind the man he tabbed as his replacement, Tom Osborne.

In all, his gridiron teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships while going to nine bowl games during the 1962-72 span. He wound up with three-straight Orange Bowl wins to go with his amazing record of nine bowl trips in 11 years, eight Big Eight titles, two national championships, two Outland Trophy winners, a Lombardi Award winner and a Heisman Trophy winner. Twice his teams won four consecutive Big Eight titles, 1963-66 and 1969-72.

The 1971 national title team, which posted a 13-0 record, twice defended its No. 1 ranking against the nation's second-ranked team (beating Oklahoma, 35-31, in the "Game of the Century," and Alabama, 38-6, in the Orange Bowl), and beat the eventual No. 3 team Colorado, 31-7. That '71 team has been hailed as the best college team of all time.

He received many other honors during his coaching career. He was named coach-of-the-year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington TD Club in 1971, and he coached in numerous all-star games such as the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-America, Blue-Gray and Shrine East-West. He was inducted into the Blue-Gray Hall-of-Fame in 1991.

Inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1976, Devaney led Nebraska to four wins in five Miami appearances. In 1992, he was named an honorary member of the Orange Bowl committee.

In 1994, the American Football Coaches Association presented Devaney with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for contributions to college football. He also received the 1994 Duffy Daugherty Memorial Award.

As Athletic Director, he spearheaded drives to virtually rebuild and replace Nebraska's then-aging athletic facilities. Continuing a process begun during Dye's tenure, he oversaw the expansion of Memorial Stadium from its original 36,000 capacity to its present 72,700.

It was Devaney's leadership, working in conjunction with the Nebraska Legislature, that resulted in the passage of a special cigarette tax to provide funds for a new athletic complex, the beautiful, four-and-a-half-acre indoor sports building which opened on the Nebraska State Fair Grounds in 1976.

The building, which features a 14,302-seat main arena, plus separate swimming and diving pools, an indoor track and workout areas for wrestling and gymnastics, was renamed the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 1978.

Also in the mid-1970s, Devaney saw to the construction of Ed Weir Track and Field Stadium and a new, partially astro-turfed baseball facility, Buck Beltzer Field. More recently, he oversaw the expansion of the Huskers' academic counseling service and the concurrent establishment of the Hewitt Center in the West Stadium; the continued expansion of the strength and conditioning program and its outstanding facility in the West Stadium; the construction of the new NU Softball Complex; and the building of the Otto and Gladys Baumann Building at Beltzer Field.

Devaney's most recent accomplishment was to spearhead a fund-raising drive to provide Husker athletic teams with an indoor workout facility. The size of a full football field, Cook Pavilion was completed in 1989 and is available for the NU football and baseball team workouts. As part of the same project, an adjoining faculty-student recreation facility was finished in 1991, the Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Center. He also supervised the complete renovation of the connecting Coliseum, which re-opened in 1992 and now houses the highly successful Husker women's volleyball program.

Devaney played football as an end at Alma College in Michigan, graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1939. After starting his coaching career at Big Beaver, Mich., Devaney moved to Keego Harbor and Saginaw before spending seven years at Alpena High where his teams earned a 52-9-0 record. He then joined Biggie Munn, and later Duffy Daugherty, at Michigan State before becoming Wyoming's head coach in 1957.

Devaney is married to his college sweetheart, the former Phyllis Wiley. His son, Mike, and daughter Patricia, are both graduates of the University of Nebraska. He's a grandfather, too, with Mike's family including a daughter and a son.

We're concerned about the abuse of our products.

And we're doing something about it.

Know When To Say When™

This nationwide consumer awareness and education campaign began in 1983 and is designed to encourage responsible consumption of beer. A series of prime time television commercials and other promotional materials reminds consumers not to overindulge, and provides suggestions to bartenders and hosts on responsible serving. "Know When To Say When" has allowed us to apply our marketing expertise and deliver a message of personal responsibility to a broad cross section of the American public.

BACCHUS

BACCHUS is the kind of grass roots program we support on college campuses to encourage responsible decision making about alcohol. In the more than 500 BACCHUS chapters nationwide there's plain talk between students of legal age who choose to drink. Their goal is to develop responsible drinking habits, and respect for state laws and campus policies. BACCHUS is proving that with responsible decision making about alcohol, students can make the best teachers. For information, write BACCHUS of the U.S., Inc., P.O. Box 100430, Denver, CO 80250.

Family Talk About Drinking

This program features a series of informative guides written in conjunction with prominent authorities on children, family counseling, and alcohol research. The guides cover everything from the effects of peer pressure and recognizing teenage drinking problems to drinking and driving and the community resources available to you and your kids. For copies, just call 1-800-359-TALK.

Family Talk About Drinking

Alert Cab

This program offers a free or reduced-priced taxi ride home to customers in taverns or restaurants who have chosen not to drive after drinking. Alert Cab is no substitute for safe and responsible drinking, but it can add a greater margin of safety for these customers and others in the community.

I'm Driving

We support the designated driver concept through sponsorship of the "I'm Driving" program. "I'm Driving" is promoted with counter cards, table tents, buttons and other educational materials. This program is not a substitute for responsible drinking, but it offers a sensible option in potential drunk driving situations.

T.I.P.S.®

T.I.P.S. (Training for Intervention Procedures by Servers of Alcohol) is a program designed to help bartenders, waiters, waitresses and sales clerks prevent alcohol abuse in retail establishments. Employees of Anheuser-Busch wholesalers have been trained as T.I.P.S. instructors. They in turn are helping to train workers in taverns, restaurants and stores across the country. These courses help servers recognize signs of intoxication and to respond effectively to prevent abuse and potential drunk driving situations.

At Anheuser-Busch we, like any responsible manufacturer, are concerned by the abuse of our products.

The vast majority of the 80 million Americans who enjoy beer do so responsibly. But those few who abuse it can have an impact far beyond their numbers. An impact that reflects on us as a company, on our products and employees, and on the much larger population of responsible beer drinkers.

On this page you'll find a brief introduction to a few of the programs we've created, or help sponsor, to lessen that impact.

The absolute solution to the abuse of alcohol isn't on this page. That's a challenge our society as a whole has before it. We must all continue to take the problem seriously, as parents, hosts, friends and citizens.

As a brewer we feel an added responsibility. The ancient craft we practice is designed to produce a beverage of friendship, refreshment and moderation. We brew beer to be enjoyed responsibly.

If you have comments or suggestions, please let us hear from you. And please take a few moments to see if you can play a role in any of the programs mentioned here. We'd welcome your help.

We brew our beers to be enjoyed...
responsibly.

1995 AT&T LONG DISTANCE AWARDS

AT&T salutes the best Long Distance players

The editors of Touchdown
Illustrated are proud to announce the final winners of the 1994 AT&T Long Distance Awards.

Each week during the regular season, AT&T honors Division I-A student-athletes in six categories — longest run from scrimmage, longest pass completion, longest punt return, longest kick-off return, longest punt average and longest field goal. To honor each winner, AT&T makes a $400 donation to the NCAA Degree Completion Scholarship program, which grants scholarships to deserving student-athletes helping them "go the distance" to obtain their college degrees.

At the conclusion of the 1995 season, AT&T will present Long Distance Awards to the six individual student-athletes who lead the nation in each of the categories listed on this page. AT&T honors these players with $6,000 of additional donations to the Degree Completion Scholarship program.

Now in its fifth year, the AT&T Long Distance Award Program has contributed over $200,000 to the NCAA Degree Completion program.

Assistant Athletic Director*

The words were inscribed on Memorial Stadium's northwest corner some 14 years before he was born: "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sports." How prophetic that phrase would prove to be several years later in describing Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne, who in 22 seasons on the Husker sideline has built a total program based on more than just winning.

The veteran Husker mentor knows how to win, that's for sure; however, it is far from his only source of motivation. The nation's winningest active coach by percentage with at least 10 years in the ranks, Osborne sports a glossy 219-47-3 record, for an .820 winning percentage, a mark which ranks ninth all time among Division I coaches. In 1994, he cemented his place alongside the game's legends by guiding the Huskers to a 13-0 record and adding a national championship to his unmatched coaching resume. Osborne-coached Nebraska teams have captured 11 Big Eight crowns, won at least nine games (12 have won 10-or-more games) and gone bowling every season, three more achievements which should ensure him a future hall of fame ticket.

But beyond the remarkable on the field success story his Husker teams have written in America's heartland, Osborne is committed to making a difference in the lives of his players and staff and the community in which he lives. In today's ever-changing and fast-paced world of inter-collegiate athletics, Osborne is a pillar of stability and a visible role model for all.

Consider if you will, that 29 men have served as head football coaches at Big Eight Conference institutions during his tenure and that only two of the nation's active Division I-A coaches have been on the job at the same institution longer than the down-to-earth Osborne. Fresh off Nebraska's first national championship since 1971, Osborne is entering his 23rd season as the Huskers' head man and his 34th overall in Lincoln. The dean of Big Eight football coaches, Osborne's head coaching tenure at Nebraska is two years longer than the combined years of service in the Big Eight among the league's other seven active coaches. That stability is a trademark of the Osborne-built Nebraska program.

A Hastings, Neb., native, Osborne may well be the state's best ambassador. He is an advocate of NCAA reform on behalf of all student-athletes, an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and supports numerous area youth education programs. He leads by example and teaches that life is more than just a 60-minute football game on 11 autumn afternoons.

No less than 84 percent of Osborne's players who have completed their eligibility at Nebraska have left with their degrees in hand. Not surprisingly, his program leads the nation in virtually every academic honor available to student-athletes. In short, he's built a model Division I-A program; one that combines academic excellence with outstanding play on the field.

In the community, Coach Osborne and his wife, Nancy, have developed a special program for area youths. The Husker Teammates program matches Nebraska football players with local junior high school students in a big-brother relationship.

Financing for the Husker Teammates program comes from The Osborne Endowment for Youth. That fund, underwritten by the Coach and his wife, and established five years ago, helps prevent junior high and middle school youths from dropping out of school and encourages them to continue their education beyond high school. At a 1994 banquet honoring Coach Osborne for his 200th career victory, more than $250,000 was raised for the Endowment. This is a tribute not only to Osborne's on the field achievements, but his desire to make the community a better place to live and indicates the respect he enjoys from his peers.

And he encourages his players to give back to the community, evidenced by the more than 50,000 students his players reach on an annual basis through community outreach activities.

For his efforts on behalf of student-athletes and his work in the community, Osborne was selected as one of eight 1994 Giant Steps Award winners from around the nation by the Northeastern University Center for the Study of Sport in Society. The awards are given annually on National Student-Athlete Day to individuals and/or organizations who exemplify the ideals and provide the support necessary for student-athletes to achieve academic and athletic excellence. Osborne also received the 1995 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Distinguished American Award.

In addition to those honors, Coach Osborne and his wife, Nancy, received the 1995 Father Flanagan Award for Service to Youth. The Father Flanagan Award is given in memory of the Boys Town founder and recognizes those whose service to youth is exemplary.

"Although national championships are wonderful, Tom and Nancy were chosen back in November for this award because they have consistently displayed integrity, courage, compassion and moral leadership in their public and private lives," said Father Val J. Peter, Boys Town executive director. "They have been outstanding role models to athletes, families and youth alike," he added.

Osborne heads into his 23rd campaign on the Husker sideline owning league records for victories

(219), games (269) and seasons coached (22). Osborne-led Husker squads have captured 11 Big Eight crowns (only Oklahoma legends Bud Wilkinson, 14, and Barry Switzer, 12, have won more Big Eight titles than Osborne) and averaged nearly 10 victories per season. Of NU's 11 league titles in Osborne's tenure as head coach, seven have been outright, including the last three in 1992, 1993 and 1994. The Huskers also captured league championships in 1975, 1978, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1988 and 1991. As either a head coach or assistant, Osborne has been involved in 19 of the Nebraska's league-leading 40 Big Eight titles, all three of its national championships and 31 of its 33 bowl appearances.

Bowling, though, is far from a new-wave experience for the Huskers or Osborne, as all 22 of Dr. Tom's teams have made bowl treks and 31 of the 33 Husker teams he's been associated with have ended their season in a bowl game. Those 22 bowl appearances rank Osborne third all-time behind Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant (29) and Penn State's Joe Paterno (25), while each of the last 14 have come on New Year's Day, another NCAA record. All 22 of NU's bowl appearances under

"Tom Osborne is what college football is all about. Helping student-athletes develop into young men who will be successful on the field, in the classroom and in life. He stands for all the right things and helps players set their priorities, while at the same time runs a top-notch, national-caliber program. His leadership is the reason Nebraska has been successful for over three decades."

Osborne have been against ranked (AP) teams, and the last 10, including last year's national title matchup against No. 3 Miami, Fla., have been against teams ranked in the top five, with nine of the 10 ranked higher than NU. Osborne is 9-13 in bowl games.

However, perhaps most impressive among the many accomplishments Osborne's teams have achieved in the past two decades was the 1994 championship season. Fueled by a heartbreaking, 18-16, loss to Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl Classic, Osborne's 1994 squad would not be denied in reaching the promised land for the third time in school history. The Huskers won their fourth-straight Big Eight Conference title, and finished with the school's first undefeated and untied record (13-0) since 1971, only the seventh unblemished final record in NU's 105-year history.

MEET YOUR KID'S NEW ROMANTIC LIT TEACHER.

His passion for sacking quarterbacks is surpassed only by his love of Milton and e.e. cummings. Don't be too surprised. A good number of top people in the academic field have come straight from the football field, and with the shortage of teachers, we could use a lot more.

That's why the "Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow" program is giving $335,000 in teaching scholarships to the most motivated men and women in football programs across the country. They could be student managers, trainers, or even wide receivers with a love of physics. Just as long as their school is a member of the College Football Association, and they have the same passion for teaching that they displayed on the field.

What's more, Hitachi is also providing awards to the high schools of 24 College Football Association players, based on their ability in the classroom as well as on the gridiron.

There will always be tough challenges to face in education. But at Hitachi, we're making sure there'll be teachers who are ready to tackle them.

Along the way, the Huskers went 5-0 against ranked (AP) opponents, including a dramatic come-from-behind 24-17 victory over third-ranked Miami in the famed Orange Bowl to secure the national title.

Despite well-documented injuries at quarterback, Osborne and his coaching staff kept the 1994 Big Red Machine rolling. Nebraska led the nation in rushing for the ninth time since 1980 and ranked among the nation's leaders in total and scoring offense en route to the conference and national crowns.

On the other side of the ball, a fleet, hard-hitting Husker Blackshirt defense stymied opponents and 200-win milestone and the first to do so exclusively at one school, his 219 victories rank eighth all time, third among active Division I-A coaches. Osborne reached the 200-win plateau in just 249 games with a remarkable nine victories and a bowl appearance every season.

Not one to shy away from a challenge, Osborne's Huskers have

"I believe most of the players look at Coach Osborne as a type of father figure, and he fills that void for a lot of the players. He treats you like a son, and that means a lot."

—Calvin Jones

Two-time All-Big Eight I-Back, 1992-93

accepted the maximum number of preseason invites allowed by NCAA rules, playing in the Kickoff Classic three times, and winning all three games (44-6 over Penn State in the inaugural game in 1983; 23-14 over Texas A&M in 1988 and 31-0 over West Virginia in 1994).

Under Osborne's direction, Nebraska's NCAA-record string of consecutive winning seasons has grown to 33, including a record 26 consecutive seasons with at least nine wins. The Huskers' made an NCAA-record 26th-straight bowl appearance in 1994, a streak which ranks as the longest active string in college football and is one more than Alabama's record run from 1959 to 1983.

A seven-time Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year selection (1975, 1976, 1980, 1988, 1992, 1993 and 1994), Osborne was named the American Football Coaches Association District VI Coach-of-the-Year seven times—1978, 1979, 1980, 1983, 1987, 1988 and 1994. He received the 1978 Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Quarterback Club and Delta Airlines for his effort toward the advancement of the higher and more notable aspects of college coaching. Osborne also earned National Coach-of-the-Year honors from the Football News in 1983.

While stability has played a key role in NU's grid fortunes over the past 22 seasons, there is an unmasked consistency about which Osborne and the Huskers go about their business. And, nowhere is that consistency more evident than the national polls, where Nebraska has been a fixture every season under Osborne. Nebraska has been ranked in every weekly AP poll since 1981, giving it a poll record 223 consecutive weeks in the rankings. Since Osborne took over in 1973, NU has been ranked in 346 of 349 AP polls, missing one week in 1977 and two in 1981.

allowed Nebraska to overcome its quarterback shuffle. The Blackshirts finished the season ranked among the nation's top 10 in all four major defensive statistical categories for only the third time since 1946, and the second time in Osborne's 22-year head coaching career.

Osborne's role in NU's national title run did not go unnoticed, as he received numerous coach-of-the-year honors, including recognition by his peers of the American Football Coaches Association as its Division I-A Coach-of-the-Year. He was also selected as the 1994 Big Eight Conference Coach-of-the-Year, the third-straight season he has been so honored. Osborne also earned 1994 national coach-of-the-year honors from the Touchdown Club of Columbus, and the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for coaching excellence and was selected as the American Football Coaches Association District Coach-of-the-Year.

The 1993 season was a memorable one for Osborne, too, as he became the first coach to reach the 200-win plateau in just 21 seasons, when the Huskers defeated Oklahoma State, 27-13, in Stillwater, Okla., Oct. 7, 1993. Only the 12th coach in NCAA Division I-A history to reach the

Since 1969, the Huskers have appeared in 397 of a possible 400 polls. Husker squads have finished among the AP Top 25 every year under Osborne, including 15 Top 10 finishes and 21 Top 20 showings.

A fixture in the polls every season, the Huskers were ranked No. 1 for eight weeks in last season's Associated Press poll, their first No. 1 ranking by the AP since November of 1987; were No. 1 in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll for 10 weeks and of course, finished the season first in both polls.

In fact, a study of the final AP polls from 1973 through the 1994 season finds that Nebraska is the nation's most successful program based on rankings. Using a point system of 20 for first, 19 for second, etc., the Huskers scored 276 points to outdistance second-place Michigan's 253 points and third-place Alabama's 249 points.

Through 22 seasons, Osborne's Huskers have posted an impressive 50-36-1 (.585) record against ranked AP teams, easily the best record for a Nebraska mentor. Over the last two seasons, the Huskers have gone 9-1 against ranked foes, losing only to No. 1-ranked Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl. Osborne is also the only Husker coach to ever beat a No. 1-ranked team—the 17-14 win over Oklahoma in 1978. His Hall of Fame predecessor, Bob Devaney, was 12-12-2 against ranked teams during his Husker career, while all previous NU coaches were a combined 7-35-0.

On and off the field, Osborne's players have consistently been highly honored. Seven of his proteges have received the NCAA's highest honor for student-athletes—selection as one of Today's Top Eight, including 1994 recipient Rob Zatechka. That's the most for any individual sports program in the country and accounts for more than half of NU's nation-leading 11 total selections. Husker gridgers who received the honor include guard Randy Schleusener (1981), centers Dave Rimington (1983), Mark Traynowicz (1985) and Jake Young (1990), and linebackers Pat Tyrance (1991) and Trev Alberts (1993).

In 1994, Terry Connealy, Matt Shaw and Rob Zatechka earned first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors to boost the Huskers' total to 33 student-athletes. That figure includes nine two-time picks for a total of 42 first-team academic All-America certificates under Osborne and a nation-leading 48 in school history. In fact, Osborne's 42 first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans are seven more than second-place Notre Dame's 43-year total of 35 (since CoSIDA began honoring athletes in 1952). In addition to his first-team selection, Zatechka, who was Osborne's first student-athlete to graduate with a cumulative 4.0 grade point average, was honored as the GTE/CoSIDA Football

Academic All-American-of-the-Year and earned the National Football Foundation's Draddy Award, as the nation's top football scholar-athlete, the Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award and the NCAA's Walter Byers Award.

Nebraska has also had 24 NCAA postgraduate scholarship winners and 15 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete recipients, including Zatechka in 1994. In 1988, Mark Blazek was named the CBS/Toyota Leader-of-the-Year, while in 1994, Zatechka was named the Honda Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The honors, though, don't end in the classroom, as Husker players have also been highly decorated for their on-field performances. Last year, Zach Wiegert brought home the fifth Outland Trophy in Tom's head coaching career and the seventh in school history. Wiegert was also a finalist for the 1994 Lombardi Award and teammate Ed Stewart was a Butkus Award finalist. In 1993, Alberts became the first player in Nebraska history to earn the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top collegiate linebacker.

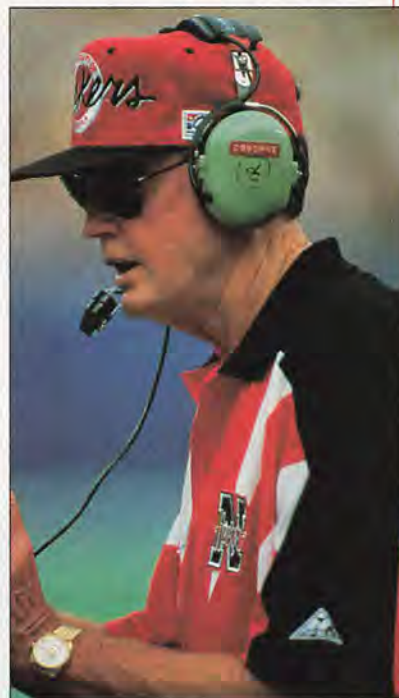

Two years earlier, Will Shields continued the streak of award-winning excellence under the direction of Coach Osborne by winning the Outland Trophy. The Huskers made history under Osborne by producing three consecutive Outland Trophy winners (Rimington in 1981 and 1982 and Dean Steinkuhler in 1983) and two consecutive Lombardi Award winners (Rimington in 1982 and Steinkuhler in 1983), while also winning the 1983 Heisman Trophy (Mike Rozier).

During Osborne's career, 41 players have earned All-America honors, including five two-time All-Americans for a total of 46 selections. Wiegert and linebacker Stewart earned consensus first-team All-America honors in 1994, the 40th and 41st times in school history a player has been a consensus pick. In addition, offensive guard Brenden Stai earned All-America honors in 1994 by four publications, allowing Nebraska to become only the fourth school since 1950 to produce a pair of All-Americans on the offensive line in the same season. Osborne was the first recipient of the Distinguished Nebraskalander Award from the Nebraskaland Foundation in 1982, and he was named the 1983 national coach-of-the-year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He's also an author, having published a book in 1985 titled More Than Winning.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid-1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska Prep Athlete-of-the-Year, then passed up major-college scholarship offers to attend the school from which his father and grandfather graduated before him, hometown Hastings College. He became a star quarterback and basketball player for Coach Tom McLaughlin, and in 1959 was named State College Athlete-of-the-Year, becoming the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honors.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Hastings College in 1959, Osborne played three seasons in the National Football League, two with the Washington Redskins and one with the San Francisco 49ers, where his roommate was Jack Kemp, the former Congressman, presidential candidate and Bush administration Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

In 1962, he contacted the newly-hired Devaney, and obtained a graduate assistant's position on the Husker staff. He continued in

"He's the finest football coach in the country. Every season he's won nine games and it's hard to criticize that. If I were hiring a coach and I could get him, I'd take him. Since we're lucky enough to have him here, I wouldn't trade him for anybody."

NU Athletic Director Emeritus,
Head Football Coach, 1962-72

"No football program in the nation can surpass the University of Nebraska when it comes to quality. You take the three big aspects of physical, mental and spiritual, and Tom Osborne's guidelines cover it all. It's too late for my sons, but I hope one of my grandsons can

Bobby Bowden,
Florida State Head Coach

that capacity until he received his master's degree in 1963, then maintained a triple role of student, teacher and part-time coach at the University. He earned a doctorate in educational psychology in 1965, then elected to pursue coaching as a career in 1967, becoming the Huskers' full-time receivers coach—a decision NU fans have applauded since.

Over the next five years, Osborne was in charge of the Husker passing game, and in his last four seasons as an assistant coach, developed a wingback by the name of Johnny Rodgers, who would become Nebraska's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1972.

When Devaney announced after the 1972 Orange Bowl that he would retire from coaching at the end of the 1972 season, he elevated Osborne to assistant head coach and director of recruiting for his final campaign, and handpicked the then-34-year-old as his successor.

Osborne took over a program which regained national prominence under Devaney, built upon it and established his own winning tradition. Osborne and Devaney are one of just three coaching duos to post back-to-back 100-win seasons at the same institution (following Penn State's Rip Engle and Joe Paterno and Georgia Tech's John Heisman, Bill Alexander and Bobby Dodd), but the first pair to do it in an unbelievable 22 years. Since 1962, NU owns a 320-67-5 record for an incredible .823 winning percentage (33 years, 392 games).

Osborne, who was born Feb. 23, 1937, is married to the former Nancy Tederman. They are the parents of a son, Mike, and two daughters, Ann and Suzi. During the 1992 football season, son Mike and his wife Emily gave the Osbornes their first grandchild, William. Mike followed in his father's footsteps by playing quarterback at Hastings College, and graduated in May, 1987.

Osborne Profile

Years at Nebraska: Starting 34th season overall, 23rd as head coach, 17th as assistant athletic director. Nebraska's record with Osborne as head coach is 219-47-3 (.820), the Cornhuskers' record in his 33 years on the staff is 320-67-5 (.823). Osborne served on Coach Bob Devaney's staff from 1962 to 1963 as a graduate assistant, 1964 to 1966 as a part-time coach and teacher, then became full-time receivers coach in 1967 and was named assistant head coach in 1972 when Devaney selected him as his successor, and replaced Devaney in 1973.

Previous Coaching Experience: None, prior to joining NU staff in 1962.

Playing Career: High school—three years at Hastings, Neb., High School, where he was an outstanding athlete in several sports and was named Nebraska High School Athlete-of-the-Year. Big Eight Expands to Big 12 in 1996

The Big 12 Conference became a reality, February 25, 1994, when Baylor, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Texas joined the Big Eight Conference institutions Iowa State, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma to pursue common athletic endeavors.

Steve Hatchell

Individually, member schools have long been respected for successes both in the classroom and on the field of competition. In total, league institutions have received numerous accolades for the quality of academic resources, programs and services offered to students. Athletically, the Big 12 Conference has accounted for more than 130 NCAA team championships and 14 wire service football titles, while its student-athletes have claimed more than 750 NCAA crowns entering the 1995-96 academic year. The formation of the new Conference represents an undertaking by school chief executive officers to combine resources to achieve even higher levels of performance.

Institution chancellors and presidents will serve as the chief policy-makers of the Conference, operating as the Council of Chief Executive Officers. Administration of the league will occur through the Faculty Athletics Representatives, Athletics Directors and Senior Women's Administrators.

Steve Hatchell was appointed the league's commissioner March 26, 1995, and assumed duties July 1, 1995. Although administrative meetings have been conducted since the Conference was announced, formal operations actually begin July 1, 1996. Hatchell has extensive ties to the league as he has served the past two years as commissioner of the Southwest Conference. His association with the current membership of the Big Eight began in the early 1970s as he worked in the athletic department at Colorado, his alma mater. He later went on to serve as Service Bureau Director/Associate/Interim Commissioner of the Big Eight from 1977 to 1983, working under Commissioners Chuck Neinas and Carl James. His tenure at the Southwest Conference was preceded by a stint as Metro Conference commissioner (1983-87) and Executive Director of the Orange Bowl.

"The future will provide for some exciting and rewarding experiences for the Conference," Hatchell said. "The Big 12 has an opportunity to be the preeminent Conference. With the added power that the Big Eight will have with the four schools coming in, it will allow them to provide the leadership for the NCAA."

Certainly few leagues will be able to parallel the quality of Big 12 football when competition begins in the fall of 1996. Recent history reveals a staggering level of success, both on a team and individual basis:

◆ In last season's final Associated Press poll, five teams were rated including national champion Nebraska, Colorado No. 3, Texas A&M No. 8, Kansas State No. 19 and Texas No. 25. Only the Southeastern Conference had as many teams listed.

◆ The 1994 campaign saw seven teams earn bowl bids including Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas State, Texas, Baylor, Texas Tech and Oklahoma. No other conference secured as many bowl bids.

◆ Nebraska's 1994 national championship gave Big 12 institutions 14 final poll No. 1 rankings in either the media or coaches voting.

◆ The 1994 Heisman Trophy award to Colorado running back Rashaan Salaam affords the Big 12 nine such honorees, while Nebraska offensive tackle Zach Wiegert's selection as the Outland Trophy winner gives the Conference 14 student-athletes recognized. Colorado defensive back Chris Hudson added to the 1994 hardware haul as his pick as the Thorpe Award designee raises the Big 12 total to four.

located in Northwest Corner

Advanced Cardiac
Life Support provided by Bryan Special
Medical Services

*Red Cross Volunteers,
Boy Scout Ushers,
Stadium Security,
Eastern Ambulance and Police Officers are trained to help.*

Location of Restrooms: Under East Sections 1 and 101, 11 and 11, and West Sections 21, 121 and 131 and under North and South Stadiums. Facilities for the disabled are located under the North Stadium and Southeast corner.

Lost and Found: Located in the East and West Stadium Concourses. Fans who find lost articles are requested to hand such articles to police officers or stadium security for delivery to the lost and found areas. Both areas are open before and after the game. Lost and found articles will remain at the Stadium until the end of the season. They may be claimed by calling 402-472-1960. Please Note: All found items may be disposed of at the end of the season if not claimed.

Please Retain Ticket Stubs: Designating section, row and seat number, if you leave your seat at any time.

Telephones: Are located at the Concourse Level, North and South ends of both the East and West Stadiums; and under both the North and South Stadiums. The university operator number is 402-472-7211.

Please Report any Discourtesy: of Stadium personnel (ushers, gatemen, vendors, etc.) to the Athletic Events Office, 118 South Stadium Office Building, 402-472-1960.

Cameras and Portable Radios: Limited use permitted. Game action may not be filmed. Consideration of other spectators is expected.

Umbrellas: Use of umbrellas is prohibited in the stadium.

The Use of Intoxicating Liquors: Prohibited in the stadium. Ushers and police officers have been instructed to refuse admission to ticket holders who are intoxicated.

Smoking: in Memorial Stadium is permitted in designated areas only. These areas are located under the stands in the Northwest, Northeast, Southwest and Southeast corners of the stadium and will be clearly marked with signage. "Passout" checks are available for those who choose to exit and re-enter the stadium.

Improperly Parked Vehicles: or those found parked in a restricted area (driveways, No Parking Zones, grassy areas, etc.) will be towed away at the expense of the owner. Towed cars may be claimed by contacting the UNL Police Office, 1335 North 17th Street.

First Aid Information: First Aid Stations are located in the Northwest corner of the stadium under Section 33 and in the Southeast corner under Section 11. They are managed by a Cardiac Care Team and Red Cross volunteers. Persons suffering sudden illness or injury should report to the closest usher, Red Cross volunteer, or police officer to guide or escort you. Companions of (or persons nearby) fans losing consciousness, or otherwise not ambulatory, should summon the nearest usher, Red Cross volunteer or police officer. They will procure medical help at once.

Lost Persons: If you should become separated from someone in your party, go to the First Aid Station at the Southeast corner of the field for assistance.

The other home team.

Sold-out Nebraska football games keep fans in pretty close quarters, and the Red Cross has been keeping a "watchful eye" on Husker Fans at Memorial Stadium for over 40 years. We've been there with Eastern Ambulance, law enforcement, the Boy Scouts, UNL Stadium and health officials, and the Bryan Memorial Special Medical Services Team to assist when help can't wait.

Enjoy the game with peace of mind. We make Memorial Stadium a safer site to cheer for the Big Red.

I've personally witnessed a situation at a Big 8 stadium where no first aid coverage existed for a heart attack victim. Thank goodness for the UNL Team Trainer who eventually helped the fan. It was a potential tragedy. That won't happen at Nebraska.

You'll see up to 80 fully trained American Red Cross first aid volunteers at all home football games, whom we regard as "the other home team," also keeping a look out for emergencies at hundreds of other events each year. During our Red Cross Appreciation Game on September 23, 1995, volunteers will be collecting donations that enable us to continue the same high level of service; so please give generously. If you can, help us get a jump on the fall season by giving your support to the Red Cross.

Our chapter takes great pride in supporting the citizens of Lancaster County, and the American Red Cross is counting on you. Won't you please help us?

HuskerVision--NU's Eye to the Future

In 1994 the Nebraska football team began the season with the vision of a national championship. After five months of hard work that vision became a reality with Nebraska's victory in the Orange Bowl, which capped a perfect 13-0 championship season.

However, Husker players and coaches weren't the only ones with a vision. Last season also featured the debut of the HuskerVision Network, including two big screen replay boards which allowed Nebraska fans to enjoy a luxury no other college football fans are afforded.

With its replay boards the University of Nebraska is the first college football team in the country to have instant replay boards at an exclusive college venue. The only other college games which have instant replay boards available are those played in stadiums which are home to professional football teams.

The screens stand 16'9-5/8" high, by 23'1-3/16" wide (388 square feet), and each screen is formed by over 90,000 lighting dots. These dots form 5,632 lighting elements, which in all make up 352 total lighting units. The basic lighting elements, units and module cabinets, plus video processing electronics are manufactured by Mitsubishi Electronics. The cost of the system is being paid entirely by commercial sponsorships.

Beside the obvious advantage of being able to view replays and game action on two huge screens, HuskerVision made several other changes to game day at Memorial Stadium.

First, the screens are the most important ingredient to one of the most dramatic team entrances in all of sports. Along with the new sound system, the replay boards helped make "The Tunnel Walk" part of the atmosphere of Nebraska football.

HuskerVision's contributions to Memorial Stadium did not go unnoticed by Nebraska fans. In a recent survey of season ticket holders, fans mentioned HuskerVision as one of the most beneficial and worthwhile additions to Memorial Stadium in many years.

Like the Husker football team, the HuskerVision crew spends the week prior to a home game developing its own game plan. Starting on Sunday prior to a home game, the crew produces features for Saturday's game and spends much of the week preparing graphics, mug shots and other clips which appear on the boards throughout the game.

Saturday's are showtime for the HuskerVision crew. On a home Saturday, the HuskerVision crew is headed by game day producer and athletic department video production specialist Jeff Schmahl. He is in charge of the control room personnel which includes eight people, while three other members of the staff operate cameras on the field. Also operating in conjunction with much of HuskerVision's features is public address announcer Rick Schwieger, who also serves as production specialist for the athletic department. Dave Finn is the athletic department's director of video operations and manages HuskerVision.

This season HuskerVision moves into a brand new home in the West Stadium. Located on the concourse level of the West Stadium, HuskerVision's new home includes brand new office space to accommodate three full-time employees and a staff of student assistants. In addition, a state-of-the-art control room allows four people to work on video projects simultaneously.

Also located in HuskerVision's new area is a full production studio. The studio will be used to tape the Tom Osborne Show immediately following home games for statewide broadcast on Sunday mornings. New to the HuskerVision lineup this season is the Tom Osborne Kickoff Show which will air on Saturday mornings and preview the day's game. Following the football season, the Saturday morning show will continue and will be used to spotlight various Husker sports and athletes.

HuskerVision's duties also include the production of highlight tapes for all 22 Nebraska varsity sports. Last season, the HuskerVision crew produced and marketed two highlight tapes on the Nebraska football season. Following the regular season, "Four Straight Big Eight" recorded Nebraska's march to an undefeated season and an Orange Bowl appearance. After Nebraska's dramatic Orange Bowl victory in Miami, another tape, "Finished Business" was produced. The tape featured game action from the Orange Bowl, as well as a behind the scenes look at the preparation and celebration of the Orange Bowl.

Long known for having one of the best atmospheres in all of college football, Memorial Stadium has become an even better venue for fans with the addition of HuskerVision. With other improvements on the way, Memorial Stadium is sure to remain as one of the nation's most dramatic settings for a college football game.

Enjoy the Sights.

Home games in bold at Abbott Soccer Park Complex, located 1 1/2 miles north of Cornhusker Hwy. on 70th street.

After posting a 14-4 record in its inaugural season, the University of Nebraska women's soccer team has its sights set on playing at an even higher level.

Now in his second season as NU's field boss, Head Coach John Walker's Huskers will again feature a lineup dominated by underclassmen. But after playing together for an entire season and the addition of a talented cast of newcomers, the Huskers will field a much deeper team than a year ago.

"We should be a very athletic team," Walker said. "We're fast, strong, tough and we'll be good in the air. We should have 18 or 19 players that are all more than capable of playing a lot of minutes."

The Huskers will be led by junior co-captains Tanya Franck and Kim Ratliff and sophomore co-captain Kari Uppinghouse, a transfer from George Mason. Other key contributors who return from the upstart 1994 squad are sophomores Jamie Riley, Stephanie Vacek, Brenda Sieczkowski, Tanya Wright, Tara Herbrick and Kristina Ritterbush.

Freshmen Andi Bigham, Heather Brown, Erica De Vitis, Michelle Denomme, Kristen Gay, Becky Hogan and Sandy Smith all have extensive experience playing with some of the top club teams in North America. Walker said some of the freshmen may be more seasoned than some of the returning players because of their vast playing experience at the national level.

In just their second season, the Nebraska women's soccer team will vie to gain credibility in the soccer community. Combine the vastly improved Husker returnees with a recruiting class loaded with top-notch talent and NU has the potential to move to a higher level of excellence in 1995.

"How quickly the new players are able to adapt to playing at the Division I level and with our returning players, is really the No. 1 key to success," Walker said.

Husker Wheel Club

Automobile dealers in Nebraska are contributing a large measure of help to the University of Nebraska athletic program through the loan of courtesy cars. Like other programs which are a part of the Cornhusker booster group activities, this project enables the Nebraska Athletic Department to make greater use of its funds.

These sports-minded dealers around the state have earned a debt of gratitude from the University of Nebraska Athletic Department. They are an important part of the "team" that includes players, coaches, administration, faculty, staff, students, alumni, Husker Educational Award group, Touch-down Club, Extra Point Club, Beef Club, Rebounders and the courtesy car program.

1995-96 Husker Wrestling

Outlook: With one of the nation's most experienced and talented teams returning, the Nebraska wrestling squad has its sights set on defending its Big Eight title and making a run at the school's first national crown.

Last season, the Huskers posted a stellar 17-3 dual record, earned the school's second league crown in three seasons and finished sixth at the NCAA Championships and third at the National Dual Meet Championships.

Head Coach Tim Neumann welcomes back a stable of talent from last year's squad. Returning are 13 letterwinners, nine wrestlers with NCAA Championship experience, five All-Americans, three Big Eight Champions and a national champion.

The leading returnee is heavyweight Tolly Thompson. As a sophomore last season, Thompson became the first Nebraska wrestler to win an individual title as an underclassmen. Thompson, who finished the season with a 36-2 record, also captured the Big Eight Championship and enters the 1995 season with an 18-match winning streak.

Junior Temoer Terry also returns after a standout sophomore season in which he finished fourth nationally at 150 pounds. Terry also earned a Big Eight title and finished his second season as a Husker with a glittering 35-3 record, including 23-straight wins to open the year.

Senior 142-pounder Mike Eierman returns for his final season looking to add a second All-America certificate to his honors. Eierman finished fifth at nationals as a freshman in 1993 and also qualified for the meet last season, when he finished with a 19-7 overall record.

118-pounder Brad Canoyer enters his sophomore season looking to repeat his All-America performance of a year ago. Canoyer finished sixth at the NCAA Championships, finishing with a 32-13 overall mark.

Nebraska's final returning All-American is 190-pounder Ryan Tobin. Tobin, a junior, finished eighth at the NCAA meet last season, and finished the year with a 27-14 record.

In addition to the returning All-Americans, Jason Kraft returns to defend his Big Eight title at 158 pounds. Kraft finished with a 22-13 record and fell one victory short of All-America status.

Three other Huskers with NCAA Championship experience return including Tony DeAnda (Sr., 134); Erik Josephson (Sr., 167); and Kenny Mbah (So., 177). Four other lettermen return, including Darin Giese (Sr., 118); Jeramie Welder (So., 126); Mike Roller (So., 158) and Chad Nelson (Sr., 167).

With the type of experience and talent the Huskers have returning, Neumann is expecting big things from his 11th Nebraska team.

"We've got all the ingredients to be an outstanding team this season," Neumann said. "If we perform to our capabilities we should have a good shot at another conference title and could be a real threat for the national championship."

1996 Big Red Football School

Dear Student-Athlete:

I know attending a camp can be very valuable to a young athlete, and the Nebraska Coaching Staff wants you to know that we will do everything possible to pass along personal instruction and individual techniques to every athlete and to make that learning experience a truly enjoyable one.

Sincerely,

Tom Osborne

- Winningest Active Coach in Division I-A with 10 seasons on the sideline
- Winningest Coach in Big Eight History
- Seven-time Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year

Cost per session:
$165

Registration

Boys who will be in the ninth, 10th, 11th or 12th grades in school next fall are eligible to attend the Big Red Football School. The fee is $165. An advance registration deposit of $100 must accompany each application. The balance is due at registration time. There will be no refund of fees after the boy has been accepted in school. Housing in Abel Residence Hall, where breakfast, lunch and dinner are served is included in the $165 fee.

Boys that live close to the University may stay with their parents if approved--an adjustment in fees will be made in this case. Attached is an application form which should be filled out and sent at once to: Big Red Football School, 217 S. Stadium, P.O. Box 880125, Lincoln, NE 68588. Make checks payable to: Big Red Football School.

Sessions

During each session, Tom Osborne and his staff will give personal instruction on individual techniques and fundamentals daily from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Lectures will be given after lunch by Coach Osborne (motivation) and Nebraska's strength coach, Boyd Epley (strength training). Evening sessions will be devoted to game competition. During the camp you will also have the opportunity to lift weights under the supervision of Boyd Epley and his staff. Although all three sessions are individual camps, groups of players or teams are encouraged to attend.

NOTE: Each session is limited. Get your application in early.

- Honorable Mention All-Big Eight

After an unprecedented 15 consecutive conference championships, the Nebraska men's swimming and diving team was lost in a three team shuffle in 1995. Iowa State rose from the closest Big Eight race in recent history to win the team crown with 555 points. Kansas was second with 545 and the Huskers dropped to third with 525. However, this season, the Huskers boast the talented returnees and newcomers needed to bring the final Big Eight championship back to Lincoln and make a run at national prominence.

Two honorable mention All-Americans return. All were members of the 200 and 400 freestyle relays which placed 14th and 13th, respectively, at the NCAA meet last year, guiding Nebraska to its 27th place finish. Among these are sprinters Alex Shleifman and Juan Benavides. Shleifman placed third in the 50 freestyle (20.12) and claimed fifth in the 100 backstroke at the Big Eight Championships. Benavides had to fight a viral infection, but still notched a fourth place finish in the 50 free (20.20) and sixth in the 100 free (45.55) at the conference meet.

Among other returnees for the Huskers are breastroker Conny Wennberg, the Big Eight record holder in the 200 breast (1:59.13). Olympic Festival hero Mark Bennett will give solid help in the middle distance freestyle events. Sophomore Adrian Costello will be a conference threat in breaststroke and freestyle events. Jaime Stevens and Bjorn Moller will headline the IM events for the Huskers.

Newcomers will also play a factor in the Husker's hopes to return the conference crown to Lincoln. Lincoln native David Foster, along with Colorado standout Benji Lodholm, Oregon native Keith Ebbert, Florida star Eric Rasser and Theo Verster of South Africa, should all make contributions.

The diving squad must again reload, after losing Jeff Bro to graduation and three other divers leaving the team due to personal reasons. However junior Kevin Gregory returns, after finishing second on the 1-meter and fourth on the three meter at the Big Eight Championships, Gregory will make a run at conference gold this spring. Darren Thornbrugh is the only other returnee with a letter.

Help remind them they're kids.

It's not easy being a kid. Poverty, gangs and single parent homes are just a few of the obstacles children have to deal with these days. A lot of children are forced to grow up quickly and miss out on the best parts of childhood.

These kids could really use a Pal. A Pacific Pal.

Through Pacific Pals, underprivileged and "at risk" children are given the chance to do "kids stuff." Some of the activities are: the Pacific Pals Summer Camps in both Omaha and Lincoln, University of Nebraska football and basketball, Omaha Ballet, Creighton University basketball, Henry Doorly Zoo, Omaha Children's Museum, Omaha Royals baseball, Dickens in the Market, Omaha Lancers hockey, Fontenelle Forest, Omaha Racers basketball, Joslyn Museum and River City Roundup & Rodeo. In most cases, the activity includes admission, food and souvenirs.

Founded in 1990 by Pacific Realty Group, Inc., Pacific Pals is a non-profit corporation, funded through corporate support. In the first five years, more than 10,000 children have benefited from this program.

Help more kids get the chance to be kids. Be a Pal. Call Pacific Realty at (402) 345-5866 and find out how you and corporation can help.

Home matches are played at the NU Coliseum

Eager and enthusiastic about the upcoming season, the Nebraska volleyball team enters the 1995 campaign with one goal and one focus--win the national championship. Led by senior All-Americans Christy Johnson and Allison Weston and All-Mideast selection Billie Winsett, Nebraska is as experienced as any team in the country. Mix that experience with a recruiting class ranked No. 1 by Volleyball Magazine and AVCA national Coach-of-the-Year Terry Pettit has all the ingredients of a championship contender.

Weston, the 1994 Big Eight Player-of-the-Year, should continue to lead the offensive attack. Last season, she set a conference record with 4.99 kills per game as the Papillion, Neb., native tallied 514 kills and had a .343 hitting percentage. Johnson, who set the conference record with 14.16 assists per game and Winsett, who hit .270 are the core of a talented team.

"We certainly should be strong," said Pettit. "We have great senior leadership with Weston, Winsett and Johnson. We were 31-1 last year and I think we're going to be better this year."

Starting middle blocker Jen McFadden should be completely recovered from knee and back surgery, giving the Huskers a defensive stopper. Also expected to join the starting squad this season is sophomore Lisa Reitsma, a U.S. Olympic Festival competitor, who will surprise many with her improved game. Maria Hedbeck moves to the back row, while Kate Crnich and Kim Legg provide depth off the bench.

Nebraska again faces one of the most demanding schedules in the nation. The Huskers begin the 1995 season with the inaugural State Farm - NACWAA Classic which features final four participant Penn State and defending national champion Stanford.

Hire A Husker Student-Athlete

Husker Football players are individuals who are team players and know what hard work is all about. They possess the intellect and motivation to strive for the best. These student-athletes also have the character to help your business succeed. By hiring a Husker football player in the summer, you will be given the opportunity to know them on a one-on-one basis for the duration of their collegiate career and at the same time, they will be given the opportunity to get to know you and your business.

Reliable:

The University of Nebraska football program is seeking part- and full-time jobs for players in the summer. This is a unique way that you can help support the UNL football program, and yet, you are the one who stands to gain the most. The young men you hire are responsible, and conscientious UNL students who have much to offer and much to learn.

Academic Excellence:

The UNL football team continues to lead the nation in Academic All-Americans. In the past 22 years, 42 Huskers have earned first-team academic All-America honors and 155 have been named to the Academic All-Big Eight team. Because of their football commitments and due to NCAA regulations, the summer is often the only opportunity these players have to receive on-the-job training. You can provide them with a unique opportunity and at the same time, your business will benefit from the skills of hard working, dedicated students.

A Good Business Choice:

Nebraska's football teams achieve excellence because of the athlete's desire to work toward being the best he can be. The qualities that a player needs to excel are the same ones that help achieve success in the business world. Did you know that during the school year, in addition to taking a full load of classes, the Huskers practice approximately 20 hours per week. In addition to that, each athlete also puts in time in the weight room. The only way team progress is made, is by individual commitments by each player. Imagine the rewards your business and staff will see by having a Husker put that same determination into your job this summer when the player has time to have a job, and do it well.

A Job for Summer or Holiday Break:

Nebraska football players are in search of valuable work experiences from mid-May to mid-August, as well as during Christmas and spring breaks. A variety of different jobs would be helpful, anything from internships to labor jobs. The needs of your company can be coordinated to match the needs of the athletes and vice versa.

According to NCAA rules, an athlete on scholarship is only allowed to have a paying job during the summer and holiday breaks. However, walk-on's may work part-time during the season and from time to time we will need jobs for those athletes. An athletic scholarship provides tuition, books, fees, room and board, however; all of the other personal experiences are the responsibility of the student-athlete. Many Huskers remain in Lincoln over the summer months to stay in school. As a result our most critical area is part-time jobs. You can provide these players with a much-needed means of support.

It's Easy to Help a Husker:

To help a Husker football player is as simple as a phone call to the football office to request more information. The placement directors, Assistant Coaches Turner Gill and Dan Young, will be able to put you in touch with a football player who will be best-suited to fulfill your specific needs.

You Can Make a Difference:

Please take the time to evaluate your ability to help us. Our athletes need your support. In order for the Nebraska football program to compete against the other prominent programs across the nation, we need to be able to help our Husker recruits find summer employment. This service is invaluable to the entire recruiting process. YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE. Rest assured, you will not only be helping a student-athlete make ends meet, but you will become an intricate part of recruiting and the Husker football program as a whole by pledging your support. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Assistant Coaches Turner Gill and Dan Young or football secretary Joni Duff, at the Nebraska Football Office, (402) 472-3116. If you can help the football program and its players by providing one or more jobs, please call today. We have been able to provide tickets for those supporters who have helped us on a continuing basis.

Husker Summer Employment Sponsors

Although the following listing may not adequately thank all of the individuals and businesses who have helped out the Husker summer work program over the years, the UNL athletic department thanks these businesses for their support by allowing Husker student-athletes to gain valuable on-the-job experience. If your name or business was inadvertently omitted, we apologize. Thank you for your continued support of this program.

Home meets in ALL CAPS at Pioneers Park.

With the departure of some of their premier performers from a year ago, the Nebraska men's and women's cross country teams face an uphill battle.

Senior Sherri Bonsall, the lone senior on the women's team, and sophomore standout Nora Shepherd will vie to replace last year's No. 1 runner, Julie Mazzitelli. Bonsall capped a strong season with 13th and 21st place finishes at the Big Eight and NCAA District 5 meets, while Shepherd claimed 11th and seventh, respectively, at those two meets.

Four juniors, Christina Blackmer, Sherri Elwood, Sandy Fein and Lindsey Miller, have all shown flashes of brilliance in the past. How successful these juniors are will be vital for the Huskers' attempt for a fifth-straight trip to the NCAA Championships, where they finished 16th in 1994.

Heather McMahon and Gina Ivory lead a group of eight freshmen with outstanding talent who should also factor into the mix.

After earning United States Cross Country Coaches Association Academic All-America honors in 1994, senior Brady Bonsall leads the Husker men's team. Bonsall, an NCAA 3,000-meter steeplechase qualifier in 1995, finished 10th at last season's District 5 meet and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Championships. Also expected to be among the top runners in the Big Eight are junior Balazs Tolgyesi, a 1995 NCAA qualifier in the mile and 1,500-meter runs, and sophomore Banti Iteffa. Internal competition for the remaining top seven spots should help strengthen the Husker squad.

A trio of sophomores, Alex Lamme, Mike Mason and Jim Vance, and true freshman Lou Petricca are the front-runners to round out NU's top seven. Junior David Olson, a transfer from Drake, could prove to be a key addition for a Husker squad looking for its first NCAA bid since 1989.

University of Nebraska Songs

The Cornhusker

(The official field song for Nebraska)

Come a runnin' boys,
Don't you hear that noise
Like the thunder in the skies,
How it rolls along
In the good old song,
For the sons of Nebraska.
Now its coming near with a rising cheer
That will sweep all foes away.
So, with all our vim,
And we're going to win today.

CHORUS

For Nebraska and the Scarlet,
For Nebraska and the Cream,
Tho they go through many a battle,
Our colors are still seen.
So in contest and in victory,
We will wave then for the team,
And 'twill stir a Cornhusker,
The Old Scarlet and Cream.

There Is No Place Like Nebraska

There is not place like Nebraska,
Dear old Nebraska U,
Where the girls are the fairest,
The boys are the squarest,
Of any old place that you know.
There is no place like Nebraska,
Where they're all true blue,
We'll all stick together in all kinds of weather,
For dear old Nebraska U.

Hail Varsity

Hail to the team,
The stadium rings as everyone sings,
The scarlet and cream.
Cheers for victory
Echo your loyalty,
So on might men,
The eyes of the land,
Upon every hand are looking at you.
Fight on to victory,
Hail the men of Nebraska U.

After capturing its second consecutive Big Eight Championship and scoring 175 points at last year's NCAA Championships, there was no doubt that the Nebraska women's swimming and diving team had established itself as a national powerhouse. The Huskers cracked the top 10 at NCAA's, tying its highest finish ever at ninth place. There are no plans of looking back this season, as four first team All-Americans return, along with two honorable mention honorees.

Led by senior Penny Heyns, the top ranked 100 and 200 meter breastroker in the world as of late summer, the Huskers will look to improve on last year's success at the NCAA meet. Heyns, a six time All-American placed second and third last year in the 100 and 200 breaststrokes respectively. Heyns time of 1:00.27 in the preliminary heat at the NCAA meet is believed to be the third fastest in history.

Another swimmer accustomed to national recognition is senior Melanie Dodd. Dodd finished fifth and ninth in the 200 and 100 freestyles, respectively, at last year's NCAA Championships. Dodd will lead the Husker sprint crew. Sophomore Mikeala Lauren also garnered All-America honors en route to finishing fourth in the 200 butterfly at the NCAA meet, in Big Eight record time of 1:59.02.

Among other contributors are junior All-America breastroker Julia Russell and honorable mention All-America freestylers Brianna Wilkins and Heather Park. Sophomore Erin Carew, an NCAA qualifier, will help Dodd in the sprints, while classmate Janet Danburg will contribute in the backstroke events. California newcomer Teresa Mauck will provide punch in the IM events.

The diving squad must replace three Big Eight champions. Sophomore Shellie Hegge and junior Juli Jones boast the only experience returning to the squad and will provide a solid nucleus. Kentucky transfer Michelle Rivera, along with incoming freshman Samantha Ashley, Katie Froiland, Nikki Markota, and TD Rowe will also contribute.

BAR & GRILL

9th & Q, Lincoln, Neb.

Barry's. Sure we've got the best salads, the great specials and a long and varied menu.

But you know, the burgers are still our favorites and will be yours, too.

So do like the Huskers and make it a repeat.

Open 11 a.m. to 1 a.m.
Grill open and hot 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Happy hours 4:30-6:30 p.m.
Banquet, party rooms available

Lucious lunch specials 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
Call 476-6511, or stop by 9th and Q

Since you've found your way down here, you get a reward. No, it's not money. No, it's not a new job or a free lunch. It's just the joy of accomplishing something that most advertisements avoid. That is, printing little, tiny type with lots of things like MSRP, lease payments with approved credit rating, must be returned within 10 days or you will be billed, no interest for the first 12 months, but you'll pay through the nose for the next six years, and things like any rebroadcast, retransmission or other use without the expressed written consent of blah, blah, blah. There are no threats here. Just that little bit of joy that both you and we accomplished something without skinning your wallet.

The University of Nebraska N Club

The University of Nebraska Alumni N Club, a group of all former Cornhusker letterwinners from all sports, heads into the 1995-96 academic year as an active group of former student-athletes.

The 1995-96 N Club will sponsor a reception for retiring trainer George Sullivan on Sept. 22 at the Legionnaire Club. Letterwinners wishing to attend should contact Don Bryant for information on the Sullivan reception. Plans are underway to develop a meeting place in or near Memorial Stadium for future years.

All former University of Nebraska-Lincoln letterwinners are eligible for N Club activities and are urged to "come-a-running" for good times in 1995-96 and future years. Annual dues are $25.

Officers of the N Club are Robert (Moon) Mullen, president; Tim Wurth, vice president; and Don Bryant, secretary-treasurer. Board members include Cletus Fischer, M.E. (Bus) Whitehead, Steve Glenn, Randy Borg, Charlie Greene, Steve Runty, Keith Wortman, Maury Damkroger, Charles Wright, Denny Morrison, Jerry Tagge, Tom Ruud, John Hyland, Dean Kratz, Al Larson, Guy Ingles, Dave Liegl, Dr. Richard Strand, William (Rocky) Mueller, John O'Leary and Scott Poehling.

The Washington State Cougars

Junior quarterback Chad Davis directs the Cougar offense. Davis led Washington State to a 24-15 upset victory over UCLA last Saturday. In that game, Davis completed 16 of 25 passes for 151 yards and one touchdown. Last season, Davis led Washington State to an 8-4 record and a victory in the Alamo Bowl. As a sophomore Davis passed for 2,299 yards and 10 touchdowns, while completing 58 percent of his passes.

Patience Helps Hardin Make Progress

by David Vincent

Even though senior left outside linebacker Luther Hardin doesn't start for the Blackshirt defense, he plays an important role for the Huskers.

"I'm an emotional center of the team," said the Belleville, Ill., native. "Whether it's a big game or not, I'm always there to help the team, keep spirits high and tell the younger guys to be ready to play."

Hardin's development at Nebraska came slowly in five years, but things have fallen into place for his final season. He says the changes from his days at Althoff Catholic High School in O'Fallon, Ill., to Division I football were enormous. Althoff was class 4A in a system where 6A was the largest.

"It was a big difference," said the 6-2, 235-pound Hardin. "It was especially bad for me, because I was still on that lower level. But my redshirt year gave me the time to get the physical strength I needed to play at this level."

Hardin came to Nebraska as a 205-pound defensive tackle and spent two seasons at the position. He redshirted in 1991 and played in only two games in 1992. He had three tackles and caused a fumble.

In 1993, Hardin moved to rush end and recorded three tackles in four games. He played in six games last season as a backup to Dwayne Harris and Jared Tomich. This season, Harris is gone and Hardin backs up Tomich.

Hardin doesn't regret the time and work he has spent climbing the depth chart.

"Some schools offered me a starting position straight out of high school," he said. "I shunned them away, because I knew there were people who were there three or four years before me. But Nebraska's program really excited me."

Hardin credits switching positions for much of his progress.

"It's been real nice," he said. "We went from a 5-2 defense to a 4-3, which is the type of defense I need to exploit my speed."

Outside Linebackers Coach Tony Samuel credits Hardin's work ethic for much of his success.

"Luther's improvement has come through hard work," Samuel said. "He really built his body into being a rush end by working in the weight room."

Hardin's says his wait required a lot of patience and determination.

"It was hard at first, because I was a blue-chip All-American and was used to the high life," he said. "But then you're at the bottom of the chart where it seems like no one cares about you."

Samuel agrees that it wasn't easy for Hardin, but he says that Hardin was very patient with himself.

"Luther doesn't give up, he doesn't understand those words," Samuel said. "He understood what he had to do and got it done."

Hardin had to be patient off the field as well as on. He says it was hard to deal with the shock of the move from suburban St. Louis to Lincoln.

"I had to adjust," he said. "There was no music, no clubs to go to or malls where you could hang out. But over the years, I've found my way and fit inside of Lincoln."

After making the adjustment, Hardin says, Lincoln's environment helped him mature.

"There is hardly any violence compared to St. Louis, where crazy things happen every day," he said. "The people out here are nice and care about you. They treat you as a person, not just a Nebraska football player."

Being a Nebraska football player had its downside at times for Hardin. He said during parts of his sophomore and junior seasons, the media's constant scrutiny of the Huskers and college football turned him off.

"During that time, I started thinking that this was just a business and that college was starting to take the fun out of football," he said. "But then I talked to a lot of the other players, got closer to them and started having fun again."

Part of the fun would include a second straight national championship and he says the team always keeps that in mind.

"Everyone from the seniors to the freshmen is hungry for a title and hungry for a victory in each game," he said. "That's how we stay focused and keep the mentality that we can't let up."

Hardin has some definite goals in mind for the rest of his career at Nebraska. He says he wants to show the younger players how to concentrate on football and become a unified group.

"I would like to be a role model to those guys to show that you have to wait the time and pay your dues," he said.

Hardin has already used his leadership to be a role model for kids in Dade County, Florida. He spoke to them while in Miami for the 1995 Orange Bowl about the importance of school and avoiding drugs.

"I believe in helping the kids as much as I can, because they are our future," he said.

Hardin definitely has his future in order, as he will graduate with a business administration degree in December. Before that, however, he has one thing to take care of on the field.

"I'm looking forward to my first sack. I've had a couple hurries, but I'm going to get it."

Personal Profile

Name: Luther Hardin, Jr.

Mother: Delores Hardin

Favorite Athlete: Derrick Thomas

Favorite musicians: R&B artists

Favorite TV Show: Discovery Channel

Favorite Movie: Usual Suspects

Favorite Actor: Chevy Chase

Most Influential Role Model: My mom

Best Moment as a Husker: Being here with the all of the guys for five years.

Why Nebraska: It was the best for football and academics, and I respected Coach Osborne.

Where do you see yourself 10 years from now: Watching Nebraska football, being a successful businessman, maybe living in Lincoln.

Interesting Fact Most People Don't Know About Me: Because I play football, they don't know I'm a calm person who likes to have fun off the field.

Senior outside linebacker Luther Hardin backs up Jared Tomich on the left side. A native of Belleville, Ill., Hardin has lettered as a reserve in each of the past three seasons.

Our position, word by word.

Minors

No one should be allowed to sell cigarettes to minors.
Minors should not smoke. Period.

That is our position.

That's why Philip Morris developed a comprehensive national program to prevent sales of cigarettes to minors.

The program, called "Ask First/It's The Law," reiterates to retailers and to their employees that it is illegal to sell cigarettes to minors.

We all have a role to play in this effort: Educators. Lawmakers. Parents. Communities. And, of course, the tobacco industry.

At Philip Morris, we will continue to work with our retailers on this important issue.

For a free copy of our booklet, Smoking Issues, which contains more information about the "Ask First/It's The Law" program, as well as information on other issues relating to smoking, please call us at 1-800-852-3445, Ext. 219.

PHILIP MORRIS U.S.A.

Husker Academic All-Americans

Academics have always been an important part of the student-athlete's career at Nebraska. One of the highest honors is to be named to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America team, along with other top-notch student-athletes across the nation. To qualify, athletes must be a leading contributor to the team and post a 3.2 cumulative GPA. Nebraska had five first-team honorees in 1994-95, two second-teamers, two third-teamers and five more who made the district team. The Husker football team had three players named to the first team and one more selected to the second team. Under Coach Tom Osborne, the Huskers have accumulated 42 first-team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, with nine being named twice. Overall, Nebraska has produced a nation-leading 52 first-team Academic All-Americans in football.

The Huskers have consistently led the Big Eight in academic honors and the 1994-95 academic year was no exception. To qualify for the Big Eight Honor Roll, each letterwinner must have posted a 3.0 grade point average during the 1994-95 academic year. Last year, a Big Eight-leading 180 Husker athletes were named to the Big Eight end-of-the-year Honor Roll. Second place Iowa State was 53 short of the Huskers with 127 honorees. The list includes 18 Huskers who recorded straight A's during the year including: Henrik Andersson (tennis), Janet Blomstedt (track), Brady Bonsall (cross country), Terry Connealy (football), Kim Dehaan (gymnastics), Jason Glock (basketball), Ted Harris (gymnastics), Kristina Klein (swimming), Kevin Koster (track), Jami Kubik (basketball), Alex Lamme (cross country), Kathy Miiller (track), Melissa Odell (golf), Cory Schlesinger (football), Theresa Stelling (track), Ed Stewart (football), Joy Taylor (gymnastics) and Rob Zatechka (football).

To qualify for first-team Phillips 66 Academic All-big Eight honors, a player must be a starter or important reserve and post a 3.0 GPA. In 1994-95, Nebraska proved that academics and athletics go hand in hand, as it led the Big Eight with six football players, and 89 Huskers from 20 other sports earning first-team honors. Under Coach Osborne in the last 22 years, 155 Huskers have earned first-team honors, which leads the Big Eight by a large margin.

The highest honor of all is to be named to the NCAA elite Today's Top Eight. Seven of Osborne's players have received this honor. That is the most honorees for any program in any sport in the country. In 1994, offensive lineman Rob Zatechka earned recognition for his academic achievements by being named to the list, giving Nebraska 11 in all.

Cruise
ANNIVERSARY

the Century

Remember!

Celebrate!

Participate!

Jerry Tagge & Jack Mildren (the opposing quarterbacks in that memorable game) invite you to join their families for a full week of laughs, contests, good food and plenty of entertainment. Bring your kids so they get a taste of football lore in its finest hour. Celebrity Cruise Lines newest ship the Century sails for seven days of warmth, excitement and magic in the Caribbean departing February 3, 1996. An early sellout is expected. Please call for details.

Huskers in the Pros... Pipeline to the NFL

Neil Smith (1984-87) was labeled as one of the nation's premier pass rushers at Nebraska. He carried that reputation into the NFL as a first-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs, where he has been a three-time Pro Bowl performer.

"The University of Nebraska staff encouraged my development as an athlete and as a person. They helped me to be creative, manage my time and build my character, poise and beliefs. The assistance and training I received at Nebraska enabled me to be ready to assume a starting role for the Kansas City Chiefs as a rookie."

Will Shields,
1992 Outland Trophy Winner

In two seasons with the New Orleans Saints, Tyrone Hughes (1989-92) has earned two straight trips to the Pro Bowl and in 1994 set an NFL record with 304 kickoff return yards in a single game.

"Coach Tom Osborne is without a doubt one of the top coaches in the country. His program shows you the success and commitment to winning. I have great respect for Coach Osborne and the University of Nebraska football program."

Tom Rathman, Former Husker Fullback
Two-Time Super Bowl Champion

Nebraska has consistently been a springboard for some of the top NFL draft picks. NU has produced four first-round players in the last seven drafts. The Huskers have averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954, with the number increasing to almost seven annually under Tom Osborne.

There have been 26 first-round picks from Nebraska with a school high of three in both 1972 and 1984 and two in 1991. At this year's draft, the Huskers produced seven draftees with six additional players signing as free-agent contracts.

A consensus All-American and GTE Academic All-American at Nebraska, Trev Alberts (1990-93) was the fifth overall pick of the 1994 NFL draft by the Indianapolis Colts. Alberts was the 1993 Butkus Award winner.

Training Ground for the Next Level

Johnny Mitchell (1990-91) was a first-round draft pick of the New York Jets in 1991. Known for his acrobatic receptions and the ability to run with the ball after a catch, Mitchell is fast becoming one of the most feared tight ends in the NFL.

Tom Rathman (1983-85) came to NU as a walk-on player and ended up as a two-year starter. A nine-year veteran of the NFL, Rathman was an integral part of two 49er Super Bowl titles.

Nebraska has consistently produced a steady flow of talent to the NFL, averaging nearly seven players selected per year during Tom Osborne's 22-year stint as the Huskers' mentor. The Huskers currently rank 10th on the NFL's all-time first-round draft choice list, including four round-one selections in the last five years.

With five NCAA rushing titles in the past seven years, Nebraska has become known for placing running backs and offensive linemen in pro football. In addition to the numerous ball carriers and interior blockers NU has fed to the NFL, in the last eight years, the Huskers have had 15 receivers drafted or signed as free agents and eight Husker defensive backs have been selected in the last five NFL drafts.

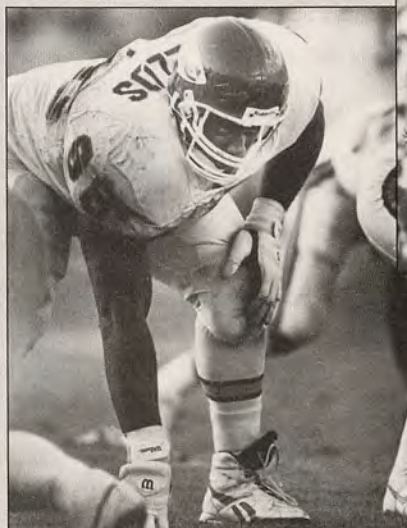

In addition, when NU's consensus All-American and Butkus Award winner Trev Alberts was tabbed as the fifth overall pick of the 1994 NFL Draft, he became the third Husker linebacker selected among the top six picks in the last seven years. Alberts followed Mike Croel (Denver Broncos, fourth pick overall) in 1991 and Broderick Thomas (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, sixth pick overall) in 1989.

Thirteen Huskers from the 1994 squad were either drafted or signed free-agent contracts with NFL clubs. Nebraska had 20 active players in the NFL a year ago, second-most among Big Eight schools.

Did You Know That...

- ◆ Nebraska has averaged more than five draft picks per year since 1954.
- ◆ Since Tom Osborne's reign as head coach, the number of NFL draft picks has increased to nearly seven annually, with 151 in 22 years.
- ◆ Nebraska ranks 10th on the NFL's all-time first-round draft list, including seven first-round selections in the last nine drafts.
- ◆ Thirteen Huskers from the 1994 national championship team were either drafted or signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams.

Irving Fryar (1980-83) was an integral part of the Huskers' "Scoring Explosion" which led the nation in scoring at 52 points per game in '83. The No. 1 pick of the 1984 NFL Draft by New England, Fryar has 500 receptions and 49 touchdowns in 11 seasons with Miami and the Patriots.

Will Shields (1989-92), a three-year starter for the Huskers and the sixth Outland Trophy winner in NU's history, was named the Chiefs' Rookie-of-the-Year in 1993.

1996 Husker Men's Gymnastics

Head Coach: Francis Allen

Accomplishments at NU: Eight NCAA national titles, seven NCAA runner-up finishes

Assistant Coaches: Jim Howard, Chuck Chmelka

1995 NCAA Finish: Second place

1996 Nebraska Men's Gymnastics Schedule

Jan. 20	Rocky Mountain Open Colorado Springs, Colo.
Feb. 3	U.S. Winter Cup Colorado Springs, Colo.
Feb. 10	Oklahoma/Brigham Young Norman, Okla.
Feb. 17	New Mexico Lincoln, Neb.
Feb. 23	Iowa Iowa City, Iowa
March 2	Oklahoma Lincoln, Neb.
March 9	Minnesota Minneapolis, Minn.
March 23	Ohio State Lincoln, Neb.
April 6	Mountain Pacific Championships Santa Barbara, Calif.
April 13	NCAA West Regional Lincoln, Neb.
April 25-27	NCAA Championships Palo Alto, Calif.
Home Meets at Bob Devaney Sports Center.

After losing six seniors who combined to earn 29 NCAA All-America awards and six individual national titles the last two seasons, one would guess that the Nebraska men's gymnastics team finally faces a rebuilding year.

But the Husker juggernaut is stocked full of talented veterans and a pair of recruits from the Olympic Training Center who should put NU in contention for a run at its NCAA-record tying ninth national championship.

Nebraska Head Coach Francis Allen, entering his 27th campaign as NU's mentor, said the Huskers may be even better in 1996, despite the loss of 1995 NCAA all-around and parallel bars national champion Richard Grace and 1995 NCAA horizontal bar national champion Rick Kieffer.

"Assuming we go injury free," Allen said. "I can't help but think we'll have a better team than we did last year. We will be a very deep team."

Leading the way for the Huskers will be senior Nissen Award candidate Jason Christie. Christie's progression puts him on pace to follow the Husker lineage of All-Americans and NCAA national champions.

"Every year at the NCAA national championships, Jason has scored a career best. If he follows the same pattern, he'll score his career best at the 1996 championships."

A solid nucleus of returnees, who helped NU to a 1995 runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships, should again put the Huskers in contention for the ninth national championship in the storied history of Nebraska gymnastics.

Sophomores Bill Mulholland, Jim Kozio, Don Kinison and Lev Schieber will all vie for an all-around position. Allen said the competition on the team for all-around spots will make the Huskers a better team in the long run. Add juniors Ted Harris and Ryan McEwen and freshmen J.D. Reive and Marshall Nelson to the mix and the Huskers may finish on top.

"I think we'll be in the NCAA team finals again," Allen said. "If you make it to the finals, than you have as good a chance as anybody to win it all."

Jason Christie

The Touchdown Club of Nebraska

One of the groups most instrumental in helping the University of Nebraska Athletic Department grow in the field of intercollegiate sports is the Nebraska Touchdown Club. Contributions from TD Club members have enabled the Huskers to build a fine grant-in-aid program and continued support from the Touchdown Club and groups like the Husker Award, Extra Point Club and Cornhusker Beef Club, will ensure that Nebraska will always hold a prominent place in the college sports world. The University of Nebraska Athletic Department salutes the many members of the Touchdown Club and takes this opportunity to say "Thank You." Members contributing $200 or more as of Aug. 1, 1995 are:

1995-96 Husker Women's Gymnastics

1996 Women's Gymnastics Schedule

January	14	Iowa State
	19	Alabama, Penn State at Alabama
	27	Missouri
February	4	Oklahoma
	9	Boise State
	16	Arizona State, California, Utah State at Arizona State
	25	Michigan, Illinois State, Washington
March	3	Iowa State
	9	Minnesota
	16	Penn State, West Virginia at Penn State
	23	Southern Utah
	30	Big Eight Championships at Iowa State University
April	13	NCAA Midwest Regionals at University of Utah
	25-27	NCAA Championships at University of Alabama

Quick FactsHead Coach: Dan Kendig (third year)Assistant Coaches: Rob Drass, Teresa Ijams1995 Big Eight Finish: first1995 NCAA Finish: 11th

After repeating as Big Eight champions and qualifying for nationals for the first time since 1990 last season, the Nebraska women's gymnastics team will need some solid leadership for another strong season.

With seven new gymnasts and five returnees from last year's squad, it will take some time to replace four key performers from last season's NCAA finals squad. The Huskers lost Nebraska's female student-athlete of the year, Nicole Duval, two-time Big Eight all-around champions Jennifer Hawkinson and Martha Jenkins, and Kristi Camp, a four-time academic All-American.

The Huskers will look for juniors Shelly Bartlett and Kim DeHaan along with senior Joy Taylor to shine.

The trio is expected to provide strength in the all-around, with Bartlett expected to be a team leader on the beam. Last season, Bartlett scored a season high 9.875 on the beam and was an All-Big Eight selection in the same event.

During the past three seasons, Taylor has consistently provided strength in the all-around. After establishing a 38.225 average, Taylor will assume the same role this season.

A strong preformer on the vault, DeHaan is as strong on the floor exercise. Last year, DeHaan broke the school record on the floor with a 9.95 mark with one judge awarding her a perfect 10.

Shelly Bartlett*Joy Taylor

During the 1995 season, the Huskers won 29 individual titles, as well as eight all-around champions for a total of 37, averaging 3.364 titles per meet.

Along with the success on the floor, the Husker women are champions in the classroom as well. Nebraska led the conference with seven first team honorees and placed one gymnast on the honor roll list. Look for the Huskers to be strong contenders this season.

A History of the University of Nebraska

Beloved faculty member Robert E. Knoll focuses on the men and women who have shaped the University of Nebraska's history. Most important, he celebrates the University's role in educating generations of Nebraskans and its achievements in the classroom, the laboratory, and even on the football field.

Where the most famous doctor in Nebraska went for heart care.

Dr. Tom Osborne
Former Bryan Patient

Tom Osborne appreciates the value of leadership. Whether he's working to direct his team down the field or helping to shape young lives, he knows people turn to a leader when challenges arise. That's why the coach chose Bryan when he was faced with a potentially serious heart condition.

As Nebraska's leading provider of cardiac care, the Bryan team of heart specialists offers the widest range of diagnostic, treatment and rehabilitative procedures available. Each delivered through state-of-the-art technology, skilled expertise and the years of cardiac experience not found in any other Nebraska hospital.

Today, thanks to the cooperative teamwork of his physicians and the cardiology staff of Bryan Memorial Hospital, Conoco.

At Home In The Heartland For Over 100 Years.

The heartland has a long history of providing for the world—a history Conoco is proud to have been a part of. For over 100 years, we've supplied the quality gasolines and lubricants people here need to get their jobs done. And we've supported a number of valuable community programs—programs like the Special Olympics—as well as educational programs including local college and university sponsorships. Plus, with hundreds of convenient area locations and 5,000 locations nationwide, people in the heartland can enjoy Conoco convenience across the street, and across America. All reasons why Conoco continues to call the heartland home.

Memorial Stadium

Nebraska's NCAA Sellout Record Continues to Grow

Nebraska's continuing NCAA record of consecutive home sellouts passed the 200-mark last season with six home sellouts. On Homecoming, Oct. 29, 1994, against the University of Colorado, Nebraska celebrated its 200th consecutive sellout. In 1988, Nebraska set a single-season home attendance record by averaging 76,342 fans for six home games, breaking the old record average of 76,341 set in 1974.

The string of consecutive sellouts started on Nov. 3, 1962, when 36,501 showed up for the Homecoming contest vs. Missouri. The last non-sellout in Memorial Stadium was Oct. 20, 1962, when the Huskers and Kansas State drew 30,701.

The Cornhuskers' Memorial Stadium has a seating capacity of 72,700 and attendance has averaged over 75,000 for the past 23 years. Nebraska has ranked in the top six nationally in attendance for many years.

In the fall of 1922, a drive for $430,000 in stadium construction funds was undertaken by faculty, students, alumni and friends of the University of Nebraska. The quota was over subscribed. The Stadium was named Memorial Stadium to honor all Nebraskans who served in the Civil and Spanish-American wars, the 751 Nebraskans who died in World War I; the 3,839 in World War II; the 225 in Korea; and the 422 in Vietnam. Construction was completed in a few more than 90 working days and Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 20, 1923, at the Homecoming game in which Nebraska was held to a scoreless tie by Kansas. Inscribed on the four corners of Memorial Stadium is the following:

Southeast: "In Commendation of the men of Nebraska who served and fell in the Nation's Wars."

Southwest: "Not the victory but the action; Not the goal but the game; In the deed the glory."

Northwest: "Courage; Generosity; Fairness; Honor; In these are the true awards of manly sport."

Northeast: "Their Lives they held their country's trust; They kept its faith; They died its heroes."

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, two major projects were completed in 1984 and 1985. A new artificial turf was installed in 1984 and the new million-dollar Hewit Center training table/study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the massive new strength complex. The weight room and the Hewit Center were expanded and remodeled in 1989. The artificial turf was replaced in 1984 and again in 1992.

Here is the chronological order of Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement from the original 31,000-seat structure built in 1923:

1946—Completion of Schulte Field House at north end of stadium (construction began in 1941, but was interrupted by World War II).
1964—South end zone section installed, making the stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.

1965—Center portion of north end zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966—Both wings of the north end zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967—New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical press facility.

1970—Installation of AstroTurf.

1972—South end zone extended, 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 73,650.

1973—Athletic office building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

1977—Installation of new AstroTurf replacing the 1970 turf, and a new scoreboard over the north stadium.

1981—New west stadium weight room and new visitor's lockerroom in Schulte Field House.

1982—Expansion of Schulte Field House indoor practice area.

1984—New artificial All-Pro Turf playing surface installed.

1985—Completion of Hewit Center (dining area/study hall) in West Stadium.

1989—Expansion of strength complex and Hewit Center.

1992—New AstroTurf-8 artificial turf installed.

1994—Installation of Mitsubishi Instant Replay boards and remodeling of Section 14 to accomodate disabled, reduced seating to 72,700.

1995—South Stadium training room remodeled and new interview room and player lounge under construction.

Huskers Boast Impressive Record In 72 Years at Memorial Stadium

Nebraska football teams for the past 72 years have been glad to call Memorial Stadium home. Evidence for this is a 286-98-13 (.737) record posted by the Huskers in their home since it was opened in 1923.

Under the Lights

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, Nebraska's first night football game at home was the 1986 opener against another team from the "Sunshine State," Florida State. Nebraska is 27-11-3 all time under the lights, including 5-1-0 at home.

Nebraska celebrated its 200th consecutive sellout in Memorial Stadium on Oct. 29, 1994, when the Huskers defeated the Colorado Buffaloes, 24-7. The sellout streak dates back 33 years to 1962, the same season Bob Devaney became the Husker head coach.

◆ The Huskers are currently riding a 23-game home winning streak, since a 36-21 loss to Washington in 1991. In that stretch, Nebraska has defeated six ranked teams and has outscored its 17 opponents by a cumulative score of 1,056 (45.9 per game) to 345 (15.0). Nebraska has scored 38 points or more in 19 of the 23 games in the current winning streak.

◆ Nebraska has a 44-2 record at Memorial Stadium in the past seven years and has a 31-2 mark in the 1990s. Nebraska's only losses in Lincoln since 1988 are a 27-12 loss to Colorado in 1990 and a 36-21 loss to Washington in 1991. Both of those teams went on to win a share of the national championship. In each of those two games Nebraska held a 12-point third-quarter lead (12-0, CU and 21-9, Washington).

◆ Since 1980, Nebraska has posted an 88-9 record at Memorial Stadium. Included in that stretch are three of the six longest home winning streaks in school history including the current 23-game streak, a 19-game streak from 1988 to 1990, and 21 straight from 1981 to 1984.

◆ Nebraska has posted 34 unbeaten and untied home seasons, including 1992, 1993 and 1994, seven since 1980 and 10 under Coach Tom Osborne. Nebraska is 126-16 at Memorial Stadium under Osborne and has not dropped more than two home games in one season during his tenure.

◆ Of Nebraska's nine home losses since 1980, eight have come against teams that finished the season ranked in the top six in the Associated Press Poll.

◆ Following is a list of Nebraska's home losses since 1980, with the opponent's ranking (Associated Press) at the time of the contest and at the end of the season indicated.

Husker Football History

Over a Century of Winning Tradition

Fans celebrated by waving banners of old gold. "The score stood 10 to nothing in the state university's favor and great and loud were the yells that filled the atmosphere," a newspaper account said.

The date was Nov. 27, 1890. The state university was Nebraska, which had just defeated a team representing the Omaha YMCA. The game, composed of a 35-minute first half and a 43-minute second half, was played in Omaha. So began Nebraska's rich football tradition.

It was an abbreviated opening "season." Nebraska's first football team played only one other game, and it was in February of 1891, an 18-0 victory against Doane College in Crete. Whether or not Dr. Langdon Frothingham, the team's acknowledged "coach," was still at Nebraska when the team traveled to Crete is unclear. Frothingham, a new faculty member from Harvard, was made the coach primarily because he had brought a football with him. He returned to Boston in 1891, perhaps before that second game.

Nebraska didn't actually have a football coach until 1893, when Frank Crawford was hired for an amount reported to have been between $300 and $500. His salary might have been in part, or all, in the form of room and board.

Nebraska's first game against an opponent from outside the state was in 1891, when Iowa won 22-0 in Omaha. The first victory against an out of state opponent came in 1892, when George Flippin led Nebraska to a 6-0 victory against Illinois in Lincoln.

Flippin was the first black athlete at Nebraska and only the fifth black athlete at a white university in the nation. Because of his presence on the roster, Missouri refused to play a scheduled game with Nebraska in Omaha in 1892. The result was a 1-0 forfeit.

In the early years, Nebraska's football team had several nicknames, including Black Knights (probably the most common), Rattlesnake Boys, Antelopes, Old Gold and Bugeaters. The team was first called Cornhuskers in 1900. Cy Sherman, a sportswriter for the Lincoln Daily Star newspaper, assigned the nickname.

Nebraska was an independent power in the Midwest by then, under the direction of Coach W.C. "Bummy" Booth. "Nebraska occupies a unique position in western football," a newspaper account in 1903 said. "Too strong to find fearful competitors, the Cornhuskers can almost weep with Alexander the Great because they have no more teams to conquer."

Booth coached Nebraska from 1900 to 1905, with his teams compiling a 46-8-1 record. In 1902, a team featuring Johnny Bender and Charles Borg went undefeated, untied and unscored upon. Booth's teams produced a 24-game winning streak—27 counting exhibition victories against Lincoln High School.

Booth's coaching success was soon overshadowed, however, when Edwald O. "Jumbo" Stiehm was hired as coach in 1911. Stiehm's teams, referred to as the "Stiehm Rollers," were a combined 35-2-3. He remains the winningest football coach in school history by percentage (.913).

The "Stiehm Rollers" won five Missouri Valley Conference championships and had a school-record 34-game unbeaten streak. In 1914, they were 7-0-1 and argued they were deserving of a mythical national title.

In 1915, they were even better, going 8-0 and again claiming the right to be called national champions. The Cornhuskers were considered to play in the Rose Bowl game after the 1915 season, but the university's athletic board voted to turn down any such invitation.

During Stiehm's tenure as coach, Nebraska produced its first official All-America players—Vic Halligan and Guy Chamberlin.

Stiehm left Nebraska after the 1915 season because the university turned down his demand that he be paid an annual salary of $4,250 to serve as football coach and athletic director. The Cornhuskers quickly overcame his departure and continued to enjoy national respect.

After Coach Fred Dawson's first team defeated Pittsburgh (coached by Pop Warner) 10-0, an Eastern newspaper referred to the Cornhuskers as "Mankilling Mastodons."

Like everything else in this country, Cornhusker football felt the profound effects of World War I. But the end of the war ushered in the Roaring 20s, a time not only of prohibition, flappers and Model T Fords but one in which Nebraska and Notre Dame regularly played football against each other. An 11-game series involving the schools began with a 20-19 Cornhusker victory in Lincoln in 1915 and ended with Nebraska's 17-0 victory in 1925 at Memorial Stadium.

The Cornhuskers' only loss in 1921 was against the Fighting Irish, 7-0 at Lincoln. Nebraska handed Notre Dame its only defeat in 1922, winning in South Bend, 14-6, and setting the stage for what has become the greatest drama of Cornhusker football during the Roaring '20s. On Nov. 10, 1923, before what one newspaper called "the greatest crowd ever assembled in the Missouri Valley to witness a football game" at Memorial Stadium, Nebraska defeated Knute Rockne's "wonder team." The score was 14-7, and the Cornhusker star was Ed Weir, a sophomore who would earn All-America recognition in 1924 and 1925. Weir led the way to a similarly impressive, 14-0 victory against Illinois and Red Grange in the 1925 season opener at Champaign, Ill.

On Oct. 13, 1923, Nebraska played its first game in Memorial Stadium, which replaced a field that ran east and west just to the south of what is now the South Stadium offices. The Nebraska Athletic Field could accommodate approximately 10,000 fans.

The Cornhuskers, who wore blue for the only time in school history that day in 1923, defeated Oklahoma 24-0. It would have been an appropriate way to dedicate the stadium. The problem was, the Cornhuskers' new home wasn't officially dedicated until a week later, a scoreless tie against Kansas. A newspaper account attributed the tie to a "stadium dedication jinx." A year earlier, Nebraska had spoiled the dedication of a new stadium at Kansas by defeating the Jayhawks 28-0.

Dawson, whose teams won three Missouri Valley Conference titles, was succeeded as coach by E.E. Bearg in 1925. Four years later, D.X. Bible arrived.

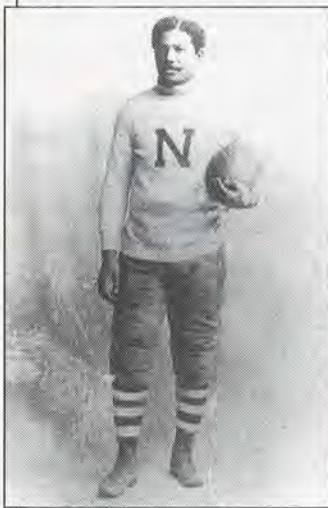

Bible, who came from Texas A&M, wasn't Nebraska's first choice to replace Bearg. Nebraska tried to lure Rockne from Notre Dame. He declined, however, and suggested the Cornhuskers approach Bible, who had turned A&M into a Southwest Conference powerhouse.

Bible coached the Cornhuskers from 1929 to 1936. His teams won six Big Six titles and featured a number of All-Americans, among them Ray Richards, Hugh Rhea, Lawrence Ely, George Sauer and Sam Francis.

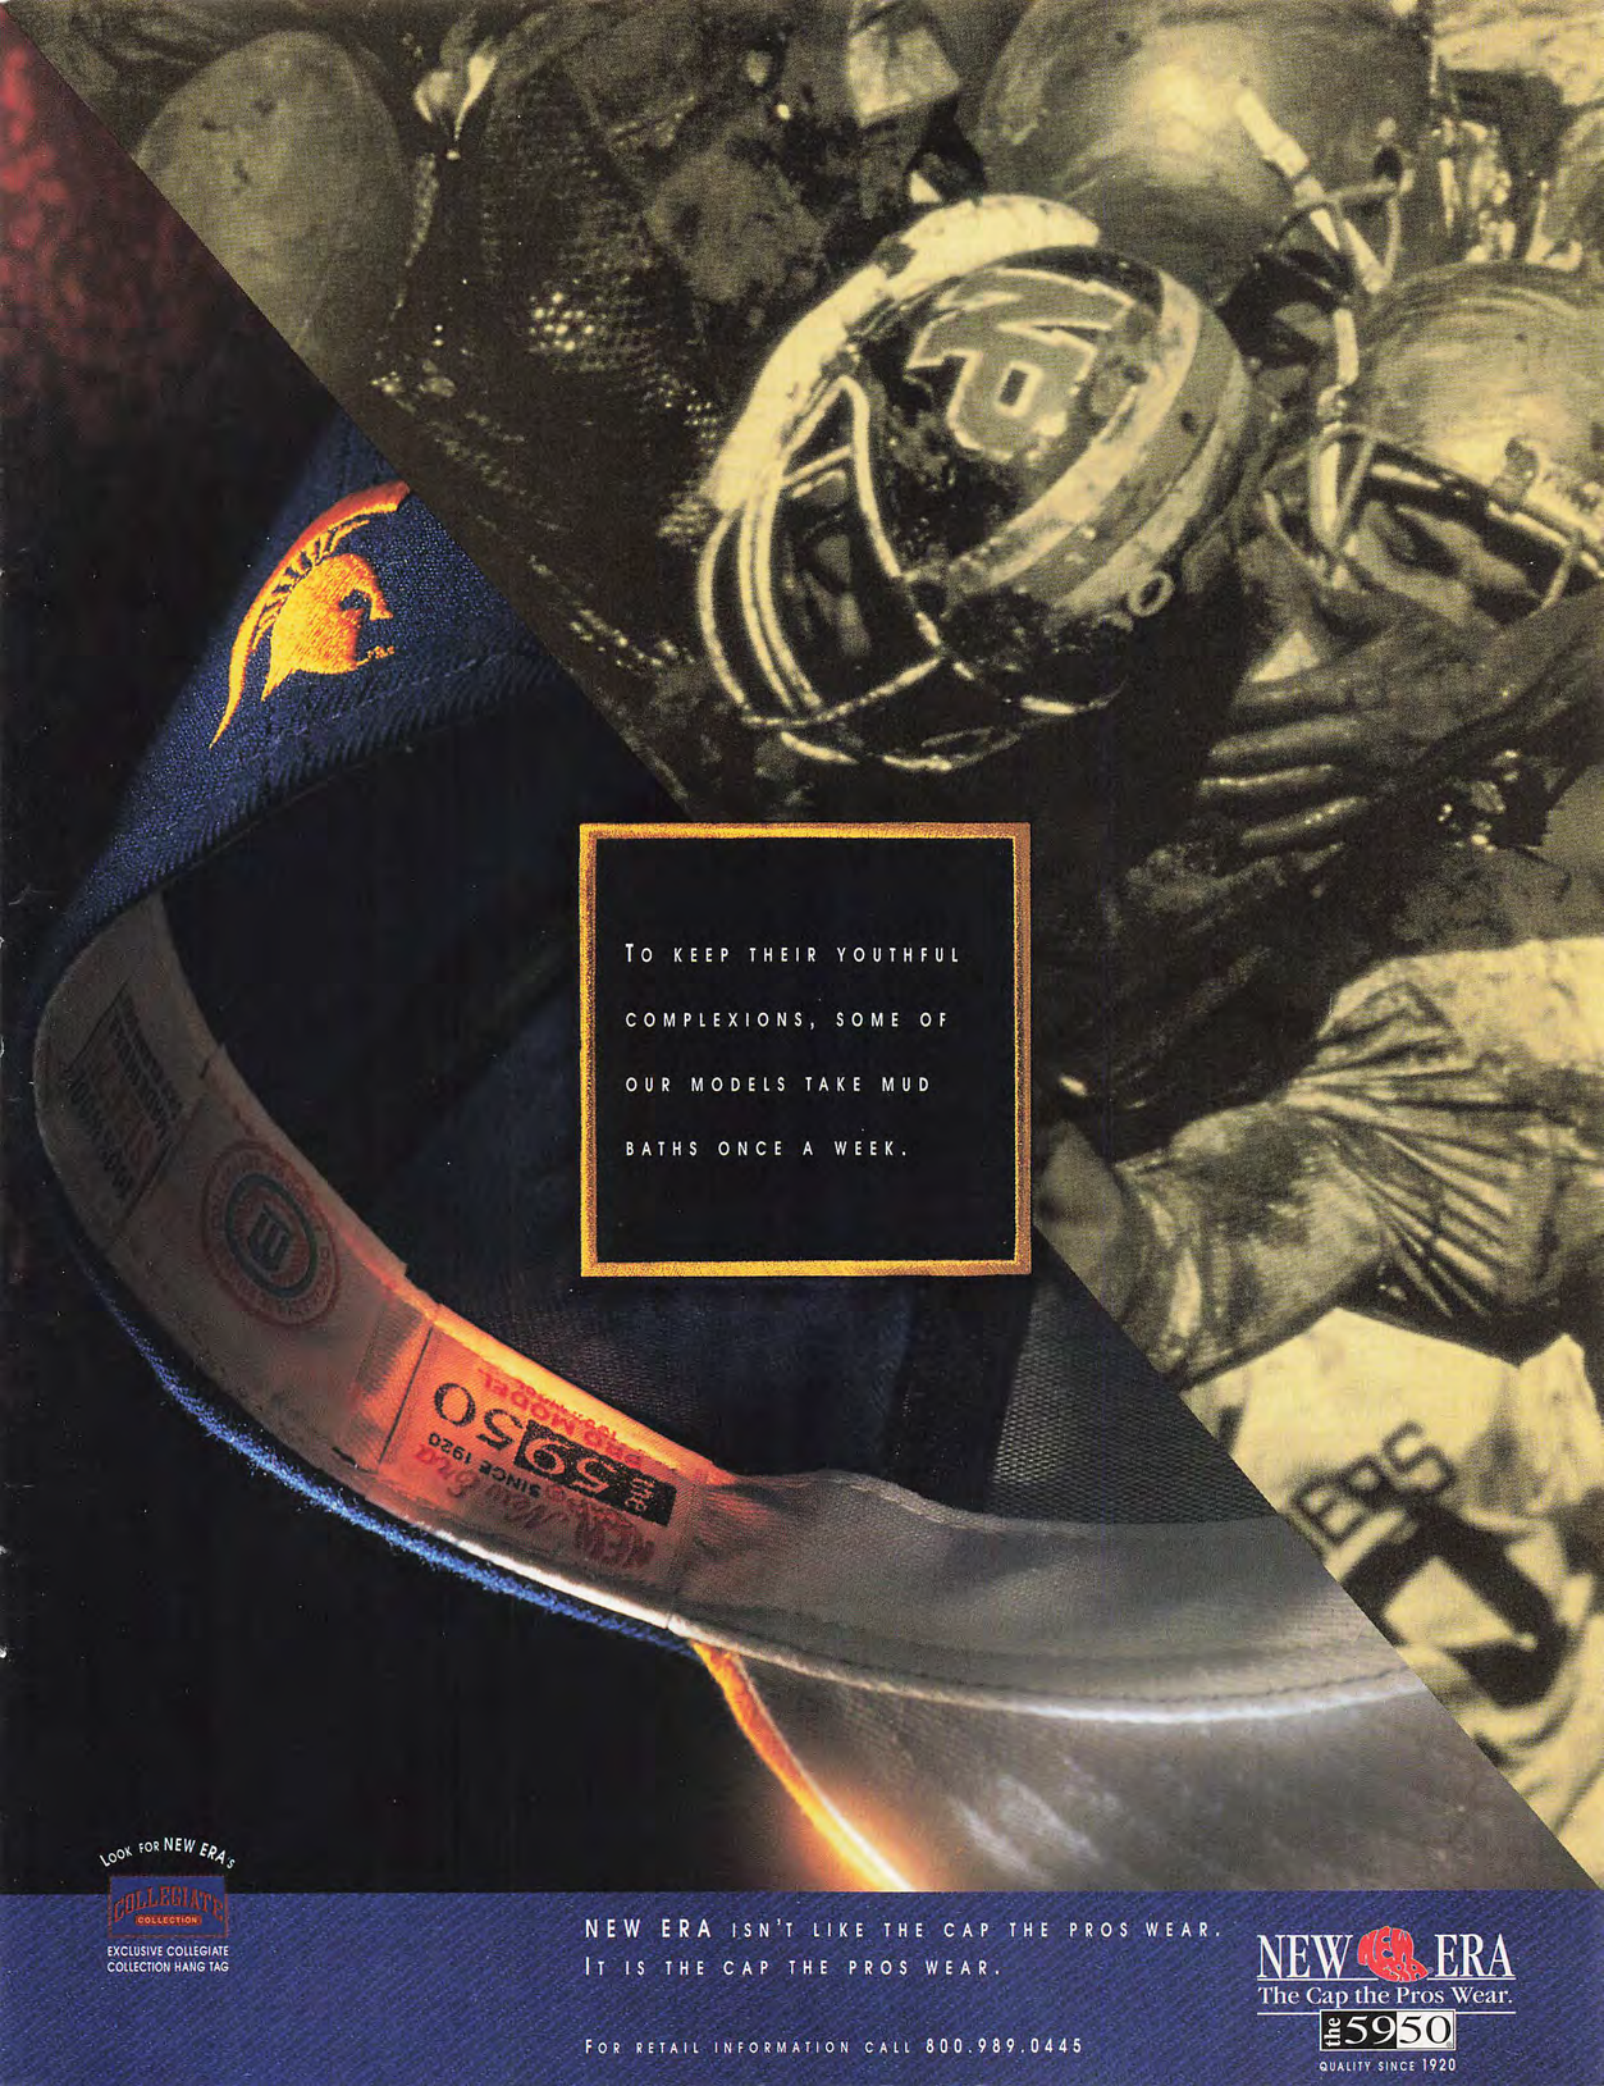

Bible's best team probably was the one in 1933, the year Sauer earned All-America recognition. It finished 8-1, the only loss coming at Pittsburgh. After the 1936 season, in which Nebraska ranked No. 9 in the first Associated Press poll, Bible left in the same direction from which he had come, accepting a job at Texas.

Cornhusker football was important to the state in the late 1930s. With the Depression coming to an end, it gave Nebraskans something to take pride in.

Bowl games are taken for granted by Nebraska fans now. The Cornhuskers have made an NCAA-record 26 consecutive bowl trips and 31 in the last 33 seasons. But Nebraska had never been to a postseason bowl when Lawrence McCeney "Biff" Jones' fourth team accepted an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl, Jan. 1, 1941. Jones was Bible's successor.

George Flippin, 1891-94.

QUALITY SINCE 1920

The celebration that followed the acceptance of the school's first bowl bid lasted 24 hours in Lincoln, according to newspaper reports. University classes were cancelled, and students stormed the capitol, demanding that the governor lead the singing of the school song, "There is No Place like Nebraska."

The team featured All-Americans Warren Alfson and Forrest Behm. Though it lost, 21-13, to a Stanford team which featured Frankie Albert and the innovative T-formation, it retains a special place in Cornhusker history.

Bob Devaney, Nebraska's Hall of Fame football coach and current athletics director emeritus, used to joke that he'd been in the state several years before he found out the Cornhuskers lost the 1941 Rose Bowl game.

Jones left after a 4-5 season in 1941, the first in a string of losing seasons which didn't end until 1950. After Jones' departure, Nebraska had six head coaches in the next eight years. One of the few bright spots, during an otherwise glum period, was Tom Novak, who earned All-America recognition as a senior on a 4-5 team in 1949. Novak's jersey number (60) was the first (of 10) to be retired by Nebraska.

The 1949 team was the first to be coached by Bill Glassford, who produced three winning seasons in his seven years. Glassford's best team was the one in 1950, which featured Bobby Reynolds, a sophomore who rushed for 1,342 yards and scored 157 points. The 1950 Cornhuskers were 6-2-1 and finished second in the Big Seven.

Glassford's 1954 team also finished second in the conference and earned a trip to the Orange Bowl because Big Seven champion Oklahoma wasn't allowed to make a return trip to the bowl under a "no-repeat" rule. Nebraska, which had lost to the Sooners 55-7, didn't fare much better in Miami, losing to Duke 34-7.

Glassford resigned, after considerable controversy and a player revolt, following the 1955 season. Six losing seasons, the last five under Coach Bill Jennings, followed. Jennings' teams had a knack for dramatic upsets, however, the most notable being a 25-21 Homecoming victory against Oklahoma in 1959. The victory ended the Sooners' record of 74 consecutive conference games without defeat.

Jennings' Cornhuskers opened the 1960 season by defeating fourth-ranked Texas in Austin, 14-13. But such upsets couldn't salvage his job, and he resigned after a 3-6-1 record in 1961.

Devaney was hired by Athletic Director William H. "Tippy" Dye after a search based on Dye's stated goals of Nebraska's being No. 1 in the nation in football and getting the best football coach in the country, regardless of who he was or where he was. Both goals were achieved.

Jennings was an excellent recruiter and Devaney inherited talented players when he arrived from Wyoming in 1962. That was apparent from the beginning as Devaney turned the program around immediately.

Despite a 47-8-0 record and five bowl appearances in his first five seasons at Nebraska, however, Devaney had detractors following 6-4 records in 1967 and 1968. The Cornhuskers' recruiting efforts fell off, and some boosters wanted Devaney and his staff fired.

In 1969, the offense was redesigned. The Cornhuskers went to an I-formation with an unbalanced line, at the suggestion of then-assistant coach Tom Osborne, and recruiting picked up because of his change in philosophy. Nebraska began an NCAA-record string of nine-win seasons in 1969 (which now stands at 26) and set the stage for back-to-back national championships in 1970 and 1971.

The Cornhuskers won their final seven games in 1969, including a victory against Georgia in the Sun Bowl, to initiate a 32-game unbeaten string that didn't end until the first game of the 1972 season, Devaney's last as head coach. He had planned to retire as coach after the 1971 season but was convinced to stay one more year to try to win a third consecutive national title.

The first championship season, in 1970, came on the heels of a 17-12 victory against Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl game. Nebraska went into the game ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press poll. The teams ahead of the Cornhuskers, including third-ranked LSU, all lost that day. There was no such suspense in 1971. Nebraska began the season ranked No. 2 by the Associated Press and moved up to No. 1 after a 34-7 victory in its opener against Oregon. The Cornhuskers remained atop the AP poll all season, as they defeated second-ranked Oklahoma in what was, and still is, called the "Game of the Century" on Thanksgiving Day in Norman, Okla., and wrapped up the title by defeating second-ranked Alabama 38-6 in the Orange Bowl game on New Year's night.

Big Eight Conference teams finished an unprecedented first (Nebraska), second (Oklahoma) and third (Colorado) in the final AP poll for the 1971 season. The Cornhuskers' Larry Jacobson was voted the Outland Trophy winner. The 1971 Nebraska team is widely regarded as the best in college football history.

Cornhusker All-Americans became commonplace during Devaney's tenure as coach. Among the 18 who received such recognition were Johnny Rodgers, who won the Heisman Trophy in 1972, and Rich Glover, who won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award that same season.

Devaney, who succeeded Dye as athletic director, picked his own successor as coach—Osborne. And the success continued, uninterrupted. Since Osborne became head coach in 1973, the Cornhuskers have won or shared 11 Big Eight championships and in 1994 won the school's third national championship.

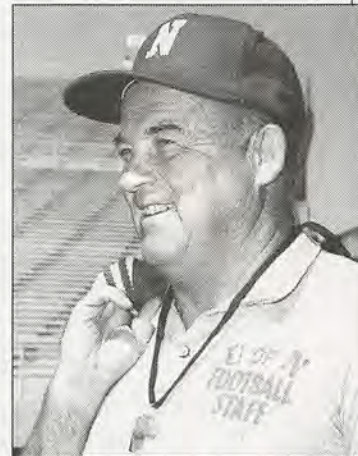

The 1994 season began in late August at the Kickoff Classic and concluded with a heart-stopping, 24-17 victory over Miami in the Orange Bowl to clinch the national championship. The season was full of memorable moments, including a much-publicized quarterback situation, with three different quarterbacks starting games during the season. At the start of the year, Tommie Frazier led the Huskers, but was sidelined in mid-season with blood clots in his leg, which pushed Brook Berringer into the starting role. Berringer had injury problems of his own, suffering a collapsed lung, leading to walk-on Matt Turman taking his turn at the reins of the Husker machine. Through it all a dominating offensive line, led by Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert, and a punishing defense carried the Huskers and allowed them to claim the school's first national crown in 23 seasons.

Previously, the closest an Osborne team had come was in 1983, when the Cornhuskers began the season in the first Kickoff Classic ranked No. 1. After 12 consecutive victories, a missed two-point conversion at the end of the Orange Bowl game against Miami cost Nebraska the national title, 31-30. But Osborne's decision to go for two, instead of settling for a tie, earned him national respect. The 1983 team, nicknamed "The Scoring Explosion," featured a backfield which included Turner Gill, Mike Rozier and Irving Fryar. Rozier set the school record for rushing yards in a season, gaining 2,148 to lead the nation, and was awarded the second Heisman Trophy in Cornhusker history. Offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler became Nebraska's third winner of both the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award in 1983. Dave Rimington won both awards (the Outland was his second) in 1982, playing for a team that probably was more balanced, overall, than the 1983 team.

The 1982 Cornhuskers also finished with a 12-1 record, but their loss came early, by 27-24, to Penn State in the third game of the season at University Park, Pa. That Nebraska team ranked No. 3 in the final national polls of both major wire services.

Nebraska won three consecutive Big Eight championships from 1981 to 1983, shared the title with Oklahoma in 1984 and will go for a fifth consecutive title in 1995, after just missing on a national title in 1993. The Huskers went unscathed through the regular season, but lost a heartbreaker, 18-16, to top-ranked Florida State in the Orange Bowl. Nebraska finished No. 3 in both of the final major polls.

Osborne has been Nebraska's head coach for 22 years, the longest tenure in school history. He's the Cornhuskers' 25th coach, not counting Frothingham, who was probably the "coach" of the 1890 team in name only. In this, Osborne's 23rd year on the job, NU carries with it several reminders of its longstanding success—NCAA-record strings of 201 consecutive home sellouts, 26 consecutive nine-win seasons, 33 consecutive winning seasons and 26 straight bowl appearances.

Husker Heisman Winners

Heisman Trophy

Rodgers, Rozier NU Heisman Winners

Nebraska two-time All-America running back Mike Rozier outdistanced BYU quarterback Steve Young in the 1983 Heisman Trophy race, becoming the second Cornhusker to win the award.

All-America wingback Johnny Rodgers won the 38th annual Heisman award in 1972, defeating Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt and teammate Rich Glover.

The Heisman Trophy has been presented by the New York Downtown Athletic Club each year since 1935 when Jay Berwanger of the University of Chicago won the inaugural award given to the outstanding college football player in the United States as selected by over 1,000 sportswriters and sportscasters across the nation.

With Rozier winning the Heisman and Dean Steinkuhler sweeping the Lombardi and Outland lineman awards in 1983, Nebraska is the only school to ever sweep all three major honors, and the Cornhuskers have done it twice—1972 with Rodgers and Rich Glover and in 1983 with Rozier and Steinkuhler. Quarterback Turner Gill finished fourth in the Heisman balloting in 1983, while Glover finished third in 1972.

The 1-3 finish of Rodgers and Glover in the 1972 Heisman voting was the best teammate finish since Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard of Army went 2-3 in 1944, then 1-2 in 1945 and 1-4 in 1946.

Johnny Rodgers

Best known for his electrifying punt returns, Johnny Rodgers captured the Heisman Trophy in 1972. Rodgers is Nebraska's all-time leading pass receiver with 143 catches for 2,479 yards in his career. Rodgers is also Nebraska's second-leading career scorer with 270 points on 45 touchdowns. Rodgers capped his senior season with an unbelievable Orange Bowl performance against Notre Dame. In the 40-6 NU victory, Rodgers scored four touchdowns and passed for a fifth.

Mike Rozier

Mike Rozier became Nebraska's second Heisman winner in 1983, when he rushed for a school-record 2,148 yards and 29 touchdowns. Rozier's 4,780 rushing yards are tops on Nebraska and Big Eight Conference career charts and his 312 points and 51 touchdowns are NU records. Rozier still holds 28 individual game, season and career records for the Huskers and posted seven 200-plus rushing games in his career and 26 games topping the century mark.

Did You Know?

Twelve Heisman Trophy winners have played in Memorial Stadium during their collegiate careers, including seven in the year in which they won the trophy. Included in the list is Nebraska's two Heisman Trophy winners—Johnny Rodgers (1972) and Mike Rozier (1983)—and the first Heisman winner, Chicago's Jay Berwanger in 1935. Other Heisman winners to play in Memorial Stadium include: Nile Kinnick, Iowa (1939); Bruce Smith, Minnesota (1941); Leon Hart, Notre Dame (1948); Billy Vessels, Oklahoma (1952); John David Crow, Texas A&M (1957); Ernie Davis, Syracuse (1961); Steve Owens, Oklahoma (1969); Billy Sims, Oklahoma (1978); Barry Sanders, Oklahoma State (1988) and Rashawn Salaam, Colorado (1994).

Our Service To Country Begins In Our Communities.

The Cold War is over. America's military role is changing. And the National Guard is prepared to face any challenge.

As a fully-integrated partner with America's active forces, we're ready to answer our nation's call to arms. Just like we've done for over three hundred years. And reliance on the Guard is growing.

But the National Guard isn't only about fighting wars. We have more than one mission. In fact, we're the only military institution with state and federal missions.

You'll find us in the community developing projects like Starbase, Challenge, Youth Conservation Corps and Urban Youth Corps. Keeping young Americans off the street and helping them put their lives on track.

In our home states, we've responded to hundreds of natural and man-made disasters. Delivering food and medical supplies. Keeping the peace. Saving lives.

The National Guard also provides essential support to law enforcement agencies in their efforts to stop illegal drugs.

More and more we are being called upon to assist the citizens of foreign nations and serve as goodwill ambassadors around the globe.

We are Army and Air Guard members. Citizen-soldiers. Dedicated. Committed. Ready to serve and defend our communities, states and country. You'll find us at PTA meetings, company picnics, and little league baseball games. We're people just like you. We are the National Guard.

Americans at their best.

Americans At Their Best.

Husker Outland, Lombardi Winners

Outland Trophy, Lombardi Award

NU Among Leaders In Both Awards

Nebraska has won more Outlands (seven) than any other school and is tied for second in the nation in Lombardis (three). The Huskers' closest competition comes from Oklahoma, with four Outland and two Lombardi winners; Notre Dame has four Lombardi winners; Ohio State three and Texas two.

In 1994, consensus All-America right tackle Zach Wiegert helped lead the way as Nebraska won its 11th NCAA rushing title. He became the sixth Husker to win the Outland Trophy, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America, giving NU its seventh Outland overall.

Zach Wiegert

When he won the Outland in 1983, Dean Steinkuhler brought Nebraska the distinction of being the only school ever to win the prestigious award in three consecutive years. And in winning the Lombardi he assured Nebraska the honor of being the first school ever to win back-to-back Lombardi Awards, presented annually by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Larry Jacobson was Nebraska's first Outland winner, gaining the honor with the 1971 national championship team. Rich Glover won it in 1972, and also won the Lombardi that year, giving Nebraska the first back-to-back Outland sweep, a feat that would be accomplished again a decade later by Rimington, then Rimington and Steinkuhler.

Two-time All-American Dave Rimington won the Outland in 1981 and 1982 and the Lombardi in 1982. Steinkuhler, an All-America offensive guard, was the second consecutive Husker to sweep national honors, winning both the Outland and Lombardi in 1983. Consensus All-America guard Will Shields was the fifth Husker to win the Outland as he was honored in 1992.

Since 1970, the Outland and Lombardi have been swept eight times, three by the Huskers. No other team can claim that honor or the consecutive sweep of 1982-83.

Husker Butkus Winner, Retired Jerseys

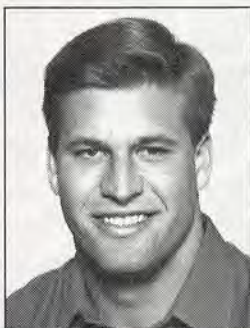

Alberts Sacks NU's First Butkus

In 1993, Nebraska outside linebacker Trev Alberts became the first Husker to be awarded the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top linebacker.

Alberts (100 points) outdistanced finalists Derrick Brooks of Florida State (72) and UCLA's Jamir Miller (44) in a poll of a nationwide panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

Alberts was a one-man wrecking crew in his senior season, collecting an NU season-record 15 quarterback sacks, along with 21 tackles for loss and a team-leading 96 overall stops. Alberts, who also holds the NU career sack record with 29.5, capped his career with an outstanding Orange Bowl performance, as he sacked Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward three times.

Two other Huskers have been finalists for the Butkus Award. In 1988, outside linebacker Broderick Thomas finished second in the voting, just behind Alabama's Derrick Thomas. Last season, Will linebacker Ed Stewart finished third in the voting behind Butkus winner Dana Howard of Illinois and Colorado's Ted Johnson.

Ten Husker Jerseys Retired

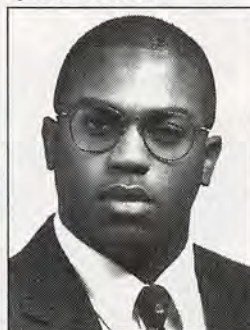

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American.

At the 1995 Red-White Spring Game, Outland winner Zach Wiegert's No. 72 jersey was added to the nine previously retired jerseys.

The Nebraska trophy case has thus added No. 72 to the No. 60 worn by Novak, the No. 20 worn by Johnny Rodgers, the No. 79 worn by Rich Glover, the No. 50 worn by Dave Rimington, the No. 30 worn by Mike Rozier, the No. 71 worn by Dean Steinkuhler, the No. 75 worn by Larry Jacobson and Will Shields and the No. 34 worn by Trev Alberts.

Tom Novak

Will Shields

1992 Outland Winner

Rodgers' and Glover's jerseys were retired following the 1972 season after Rodgers had won the Heisman and Glover had become the first of three Huskers to win both the Outland and Lombardi. Rimington's jersey was retired after the All-America center had won two Outland Trophies and the Lombardi Award, while Rozier's number was retired following his 1983 Heisman Trophy season, the same year Steinkuhler collected the Outland and Lombardi trophies. Three Huskers—1971 Outland winner Jacobson, 1992 Outland winner Shields and 1993

Butkus winner Alberts—had their respective jerseys retired at the 1994 spring game.

All major national award winners will have their jerseys retired; however, the number will still be available to active Huskers. Novak's No. 60, however, will remain retired as voted by the N Club.

1995 Nebraska Football Hall of Fame

Twelve New Members to be Enshrined

Outland Trophy winner Zach Wiegert and nine former Nebraska stars, plus three Nebraska State College greats, will be enshrined in the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame this fall.

The Nebraska Football Hall of Fame is sponsored by the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. (The new College Football Hall of Fame opened in South Bend, Ind. on August 25.)

New Nebraska Hall of Famers were enshrined at a special reception last night and will be honored at today's game. In addition to honoring former players, the Nebraska Chapter will present its Clarence Swanson Memorial Award to Milton Ebers of Fremont and its Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award to Al Papik of Lincoln. Ebers is a founder and longtime Board Member of the Touchdown Club of Nebraska, while Papik is the Husker athletic department's senior associate athletic director and longtime NCAA compliance coordinator.

Former Hastings College Coach Thurlo McCrady also will be inducted into the coaching section of the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame.

The 1995 Inductees

◆ Zach Wiegert--Earned All-Big Eight and All-America honors as an offensive tackle on the 1994 national championship team. Touted as one of the strongest and quickest linemen in the nation, Zach received the 1994 Outland Trophy, presented annually by the Football Writers of America to the top lineman in the country. Zach was a four-year letterman and was a 1994 co-captain.

◆ Ron Douglas--All-Big Six halfback on D.X. Bible's 1936 conference championship team which featured Nebraska Hall of Famers Charles Brock, Les McDonald, Fred Shirey, Lloyd Cardwell and Sam Francis.

◆ Richard (Dick) Hutton--A star halfback for Bernie Masterson in 1946 and 1947 and George (Potsy) Clark in 1948 before being cut down by cancer. Dick earned All-Big Six honors in 1946 and was also a conference sprint champion in track. He also holds two Husker records for pass receptions by a running back.

◆ Robert (Moon) Mullen--A four-year letterman (1948-51), "Moon" played both center and linebacker for the Huskers under "Potsy" Clark and Bill Glassford. He was co-captain for the 1950 and 1951 Husker squads. "Moon" is currently president of the Alumni "N" Club.

◆ Guy Ingles--Standout split end and punt returner for the Huskers in 1968-69-70. Guy "The Fly" was a key receiver on the 1970 national championship team and ranks No. 3 on the all-time chart with 74 catches for 1,157 yards, a 15.6 average and 11 TD's.

◆ Dick Davis--Lettered three years at fullback for Bob Devaney (1966-68) and earned All-Big Eight honors in 1967. He rushed for 1,477 yards and a 4.23 average during his career before becoming a community leader, educational leader and business executive in Omaha.

◆ LaVerne Allers--All-American and All-Big Eight offensive guard on Bob Devaney's 1966 league championship team. LaVerne lettered on three conference title teams (1964-66). During his career on the Husker line, Nebraska posted a 28-5 record and appeared in the Cotton, Orange and Sugar Bowls.

◆ Bret Clark--A three-year starter at safety, Clark lettered from 1982-84. He was named All-Big Eight for two seasons and earned All-America honors in 1984, as well as being selected a team captain for the '84 season. During his career, the Huskers were 34-4, including 12-1 seasons in both 1982 and 1983.

◆ Steve Damkroger--An All-Big Eight linebacker in 1982, Steve lettered four years (1979-82) for Tom Osborne's Huskers. He was a co-captain in 1982 with All-America center and Hall of Famer Dave Rimington. Steve is No. 4 on the Husker career tackle chart.

◆ I.M. Hipp--Great sophomore season brought All-Big Eight honors in 1977. He ranks No. 4 on the career rushing chart with 2,814 yards, a 5.68 average and 21 touchdowns. He rushed for 100-plus yards in 10 games and gained 254 yards on 28 attempts against Indiana in 1977.

New Hall of Famers from the State College ranks include:

◆ Robert Hauver, Kearney State College--A four-year letterman, Bob earned All-Nebraska College conference honors in his junior and senior years. The standout running back captained the 1948 Antelope team. He also starred in basketball and track before launching a 40-year coaching career, including four years at Midland before a 30-year career at his alma mater, now the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

◆ ReVoe Hill, Midland Lutheran College--An All-American in 1941, ReVoe was all-conference in 1938, 1940, 1941 and 1946. A great running back, he captained the 1941 "Little Giants" team that went 9-0. He also captained the 1946 team. He was also an outstanding punter and a standout defensive player.

◆ Erick von Fange, Concordia College--A pre-World War II star for the Bulldogs, Erick was known as the hardest hitting fullback and linebacker in the conference. He was a 200-pounder with blazing speed which enabled him to become a great open field runner. Concordia Coach Dr. Herb Meyer once recalled that in Erick's last year "an opponent tried to tackle him in the open field when Erick was at top speed. We thought for a while the tackler had been killed. He was revived, but the game was called off at that point."

College Football Bowl Alliance

A group of Division I Conference commissioners announced August 4, 1994, the formation of the Football Bowl Alliance to replace the College Football Bowl Coalition which existed for the 1992-94 seasons. The participating bowls in the new agreement are the Fiesta, Sugar and Orange bowls, beginning at the conclusion of the 1995 college football season.

Participants in the three aforementioned bowls will be the champions of the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big 12 (Big Eight) and Southeastern conferences, with two at-large participants. In the first year of the Alliance (1995), the Southwest Conference, in its last year of existence, will retain one at-large selection.

Notre Dame is guaranteed one at-large spot if it is rated in the top 10 in either the Associated Press or USA Today/CNN polls. Should Notre Dame not be ranked in the top 10, then one at-large position may be filled by any Division I-A team eligible for postseason competition, excluding the Big Ten and Pacific 10 champions, that meets any one of the following requirements.

1. Has won at least eight games during the season.
2. Is ranked by the AP or USA Today/CNN among the top 12 teams eligible to participate in postseason competition.
3. Is ranked no lower in the AP or USA Today/CNN poll than the lowest ranked team selected by a Bowl from the conference champions.

Each bowl will have the opportunity to match two top teams from the available pool of the participating conferences and at-large teams. In the event that two or more teams are tied for the championship of the ACC, Big East, Big Eight, SEC or SWC, and remain tied after all tie-breaking procedures employed by the conference have been exhausted, the tied team with the highest ranking in both the AP and USA Today/CNN polls shall be included in the conference champions pool. If the tied teams have the same ranking or should the two polls disagree as to the highest ranked team, then all such tied teams will be eligible and the selecting bowl shall have the right to select which team it desires.

The first team selection shall occur no later than Dec. 3, 1995, for the first year of the Alliance. The selection order for the first year (1995) shall be Fiesta, Orange, Sugar. The game date and locations for the first year are: Sugar Bowl (Dec. 31, 1995, New Orleans); Orange Bowl (Jan. 1, 1996, Miami); Fiesta Bowl (Jan. 2, 1996, Tempe, Ariz.).

In the selection process, the first bowl would have at its disposal the highest and second-highest ranked teams from the participating conferences. The second bowl will pick the third and fifth-rated teams, with the third bowl choosing the fourth and sixth-rated teams.

In 1995, the Fiesta Bowl shall select any team ranked No. 1 in the AP poll and any team ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/CNN poll if the teams so ranked are different and two such teams are available. In any other case, the Fiesta Bowl shall select any team ranked No. 1 in either poll and any team ranked No. 2 in either poll, if two teams so ranked are available. All other team selections shall come from the pool of teams specified above and will be at the discretion of the participating bowls.

College Football USA

The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) have joined together for the purpose of improving, preserving, and promoting the game of college football for those who play the game, for those who coach the game and for those who support the game. To accomplish this purpose, we have formed College Football USA.

College Football USA's primary goal is to benefit student-athletes, athletics support personnel and associated groups who are involved in collegiate football by drawing attention to the game through marketing opportunities which will bring incremental dollars to members institutions, conferences and other associated groups. College Football USA will encourage companies to support the game at all levels--nationally, regionally and locally.

A large portion of the monies raised will go back to athletic departments, bringing in "fresh dollars" that will help other sports as well as football.

College Football USA will utilize a full complement of sponsorship, licensing/merchandising, publicity, promotions, public relations and marketing components. In order to provide a unifying mark which can visibly represent college football on a national and local level, we have created the College Football USA logo.

The program is an outgrowth of the successful 125th Anniversary of College Football Celebration sponsored by the AFCA and NACDA during the 1994 season. Athletics marketing experts have indicated that because College Football USA is unifying 671 football-playing --and, therefore, its supporters--it has the potential to match or exceed similar programs at the professional level.

NCAA Rules and Regulations

Your support of Nebraska athletics is very much appreciated. However, there are restrictions regarding your involvement with student-athletes. Help Nebraska assure compliance with NCAA rules and regulations by taking a few moments to read this information. The eligibility of Nebraska student-athletes and reputation of the department and university depend greatly upon your cooperation.

Winning Tradition

Supporters of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln are proud of Nebraska's rich tradition in both academic accomplishments and athletic achievements. Student-athletes, coaches, and other administrators have worked extremely hard to place Nebraska at the head of the class academically and among the most prestigious athletic programs in the country. Nebraska's tradition is rich in Academic All-Americans, NCAA Top Eight Award Winners, Big-Eight Conference titles and national championships.

Most importantly, Nebraska athletics has built and maintained tradition and excellence based on integrity. Winning is important at Nebraska, but winning the RIGHT way by following the NCAA rules that govern the recruitment and treatment of student-athletes is a must!

The goal of this pamphlet is to educate you regarding NCAA rules that apply to you when interacting with student-athletes.

Key Point

You are considered a representative of Nebraska just by being an alumnus, friend, or fan.

Key Rule—NCAA Bylaw 13.01.5.1

In Division I, representatives of an institution's athletics interests are prohibited from making in-person, on-or-off-campus recruiting contacts, or written or telephonic communications with a prospect or the prospect's relatives or legal guardians.

Interpretations

1. A representative of a Division I institution is prohibited from making in-person recruiting contact with a prospect and his or her parents/guardians—on or off campus.

Limited Exception: A representative may have contact with a prospect regarding permissible pre-enrollment activities such as summer employment, provided the prospect has already signed a National Letter-of-Intent and the institution is aware that you are making these contacts in regard to the employment.

2. A Division I representative is prohibited from writing or telephoning a prospect and his or her parents or legal guardians.

Limited Exception: A representative may have a phone conversation with a prospect only if the prospect initiates the call. Such a call may not be prearranged by an institutional staff member and the representative is not permitted to have a recruiting conversation, but may exhibit normal civility. The representative must refer any questions about the University's athletic program to the athletic department.

3. A representative is prohibited from contacting a prospect's coach, principal, or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.

Limited Exception: NCAA rules do not preclude a representative from viewing a prospect's contest on the representative's own initiative, but the representative may not contact the prospect.

The most common NCAA rules infraction relates to the extra benefits rule. An extra benefit would include provision of any transportation, meals, clothes, entertainment, preferential loan terms or other benefit offered to a student-athlete unavailable to the general student population.

A representative may not provide any such extra benefit to an enrolled student-athlete or their family. Simply put, you may not treat a student-athlete any differently than a student who does not participate in athletics.

Key Contact

Questions regarding NCAA rules, especially those relating to contact between alumni and recruits or enrolled student-athletes can be directed to Nebraska's Senior Associate Athletic Director in charge of Compliance.

Thank you for your support of Nebraska athletics. Your full cooperation in keeping Nebraska's commitment to excellence and athletic integrity intact is very much appreciated. Your compliance and cooperation will help ensure the eligibility of both high school prospects and enrolled student-athletes.

Two Final Reminders

1. Please contact the athletic department for NCAA rules interpretations.
2. Remember that in most cases: CONTACT IS PROHIBITED.

Husker Wrestling Loaded With Talent

By Keith Mann

After one of the finest seasons in school history, one might expect the Nebraska wrestling team to experience a dropoff in 1995-96. However, a quick check of the Huskers' returning talent reveals quite a different story.

Coach Tim Neumann and assistants Mark Cody and Brad Penrith welcome back a national champion, four All-Americans and three Big Eight champions from last year's team which finished with a 17-3 dual record, won the school's second league title in three seasons and finished sixth at the NCAA Championships.

With that type of experience and talent returning expectations in the Nebraska wrestling room are similar to the 1993 season, when the Huskers finished third in the nation.

"The expectations are probably as high as they were in 1993, and I don't think that's just within the program," Neumann said. "The people around the country who know about wrestling are pointing to Nebraska as one of the teams that is going to have a good season this year."

Heading the cast of returnees is junior heavyweight Tolly Thompson. In 1995, Thompson became the first underclassman in school history to claim an NCAA Championship, doing so as a sophomore. Thompson also collected the Big Eight title en route to a 36-2 overall record in 1995. After two seasons, Thompson has 74 career victories, putting him on track to challenge the school record for victories.

Neumann said Thompson has not let last season's success change his dedication to becoming an even better wrestler.

"I don't think Tolly has any goals in college other than being a three-time national champion," Neumann said. "He's training like he wants to accomplish even more than that in his wrestling career. Sometimes an underclassman who won the national title would sit at home all summer and read his press clippings, but Tolly didn't do that. He's added 20 pounds of solid muscle and he's quite a few points better than he was at the end of last season."

While Thompson's credentials head the list of Nebraska returnees, Neumann can point to several other wrestlers who have the ability to earn similar honors in 1995.

Junior Temoer Terry returns at 150 pounds after winning the Big Eight title last season and earning All-America honors with a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Terry finished his sophomore season with 35-3 record, including victories in his first 23 matches a year ago.

Neumann said a different approach to Terry's season could make him even stronger at the end of the year.

"Temoer didn't get the opportunity to wrestle all the best guys in his class last season and we are going to make sure that doesn't happen again," Neumann said. "Secondly, we cut Temoer down to 150 every time he was healthy last season. At the end of the year, I don't think Temoer was as good of a wrestler as he was earlier in the season. This year we'll make sure he's healthy and in the best shape at the end of the season."

Two other All-Americans return from last season. At 118 pounds, Brad Canoyer returns for his sophomore season after placing sixth at the NCAA Championships as a redshirt freshman. Also returning is junior 190-pounder Ryan Tobin who placed eighth at nationals last season.

"They both had great summers and have set themselves up for big things this year," Neumann said. "Canoyer had shoulder surgery in the offseason and should be healthier than he was last year. He should be able to wrestle a more wide-open style this season. Tobin has gotten a lot stronger and looks like he's ready to have a fantastic year."

Nebraska's talent doesn't stop with the returning All-Americans. Junior 158-pounder Jason Kraft is back after winning a Big Eight title and narrowly missing All-America honors last season. Neumann expects big things from Kraft this season.

"Kraft has been on a mission since the quarterfinals at nationals last season," Neumann said. "He knows he let perhaps a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity go by without taking advantage of it. He's had as good of a summer as anyone ever has here. He's working on all the right things and his attitude is great, so he's really cooking right now."

At 167 pounds, senior Erik Josephson is the expected starter after qualifying for nationals and finishing the 1995 season with a 30-8 record.

"He was beat up by the end of last year," Neumann said. "We are going to make sure he is fresh and healthy at the end of the season and if he is, Erik's one of the best 167-pounders in the country."

Nebraska returns two other wrestlers who qualified for the NCAA Championships last season in senior 134-pounder Tony DeAnda and sophomore 177-pounder Kenny Mbah. Also returning are letterwinners Chad Nelson (167), Darin Giese (118), Mike Roller (158) and Jeramie Welder (126). Neumann said those four wrestlers are all capable of making a push for starting positions this winter.

Neumann also will be counting on a strong group of redshirt freshmen to push for time on the mat. Among the top redshirt freshmen are Matt Infranca (118), Jose DeAnda (126), Allen Hankins (134), Chris Steele (150), Kalin Makaiwi (177) and Matt Holovach (190).

According to Neumann, the type of depth Nebraska has recruited in recent years has helped push returning wrestlers to become even better.

"You wouldn't be proud if you were a returning All-American or Big Eight Champion and couldn't make the starting lineup the next year," Neumann said. "Our guys know they have to work their tail off every day in order to keep their spot in the lineup."

"In past years I've looked around the wrestling room and saw maybe 12 or 13 guys that I thought were capable of being All-Americans at some point in their career. At the start of practice this year, I counted 24 that I think could be All-Americans or national champions. That's an awful lot out of 38 guys."

That depth should come in handy throughout the season as a grueling schedule awaits the Huskers. Nebraska opens the season on November 18 at the St. Louis Open, followed by the Northern Open on November 25. Those two tournaments will allow Nebraska to compete against the majority of the Big Eight and Big Ten schools. Following those two season-opening tournaments is the prestigious Las Vegas Invitational, which will include 43 of the nation's top teams. Nebraska plays host to the National Dual Meet Championships for the fourth consecutive season on Jan. 20-21, 1996. Throw in a strong dual schedule and Nebraska will face most of the nation's top teams during the Husker heavyweight Tolly Thompson returns for his junior season, after capturing Big Eight and NCAA Championships as a sophomore. In two seasons of varsity action, Thompson has recorded 74 victories, including a 36-2 record with 12 pins last season.

"This is as strong of a schedule as we've ever had here," Neumann said. "We want to make sure our wrestlers see as much tough competition leading up to the Big Eight and NCAA Championships at the end of the year."

As the defending Big Eight Champion, Nebraska will once again be looked at as one of the favorites to win the league title. However, Neumann feels four teams, Nebraska, Iowa State, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State are capable of winning the championship.

"If you look at the Big Eight, everyone is at least as strong as they were last year," Neumann said. "It should be another great Big Eight race this season, but we feel we are as capable as anyone of winning the league."

Nebraska also expects to contend for a high finish at the national level. Defending national champion Iowa is the favorite to repeat, with a number of teams trying to catch them. While Neumann believes Nebraska is primed for a big season, he is placing a great deal of emphasis on keeping the program at a high level into the future.

"The sense of urgency that's been there to win everything right now is diminishing a little because of priorities being placed in other areas," Neumann said. "We're concentrating a little more on making the foundation of the program stronger than it has been in the past. We are making sure our young kids are understanding what their responsibilities are to the program. I think what it's going to do in the long run is make the success sustained over a several-year period."

As for this season, Neumann's game plan is for Nebraska to reach its potential through hard work.

"We are approaching it just like we did in 1993, where we have a Plan A and we don't really have a Plan B," Neumann said. "We're just going to try to outwork everyone from day one and keep it burning throughout the year. These guys all have a hunger to accomplish something that makes a statement about themselves and the program and they are not going to let someone else outwork them."

Nebraska Football Notables

- ◆ Nebraska leads the nation in consecutive winning seasons with 33, a continuing NCAA record.
- ◆ The Huskers lead the nation in consecutive nine-win seasons with an NCAA-record 26, the next closest team has 10.
- ◆ Nebraska has the longest current bowl participation streak with an NCAA-record 26 consecutive berths.
- ◆ The Huskers have not only gone to 26 bowls in a row, but have gone to a record 14 consecutive New Year's Day bowls, including the national championship matchup in the 1995 Orange Bowl.
- ◆ In rankings, Nebraska is tops in the nation as the Huskers have been ranked by the Associated Press every week since 1981, giving the Huskers an AP Poll record of 223 consecutive weeks in the ratings. In fact, Nebraska has been in 397 of the last 400 AP Polls since 1969--26 consecutive years, 346 of 349 under Coach Tom Osborne.
- ◆ Nebraska posts an NCAA record with 201 consecutive home sellouts in Memorial Stadium dating back to 1962, when Coach Bob Devaney took the helm as head coach.
- ◆ Among coaches with 10 years experience, Tom Osborne is the winningest coach in the nation with an .820 winning percentage.
- ◆ Osborne holds Big Eight Conference records for games coached (269) and won (219). His 219 wins rank third in the nation among active coaches. With his win over Oklahoma State on October 7, 1993, he joined 12 other coaches all time, and five active as a member of the elusive 200-win club. Osborne was the only coach in the history of Division I-A football to reach the 200-win plateau in just 21 seasons.
- ◆ Nebraska leads the nation in nearly every academic honor available to student-athletes, including the number of first-team Academic All-Americans for football (48 total, 42 under Osborne, an average of nearly two per year).
- ◆ Nebraska leads the nation in NCAA Today's Top Eight Award winners with 11 including Rob Zatechka in 1994. This is the highest academic honor the NCAA awards to student-athletes. In football, Nebraska has had seven honorees, more than any other individual sports program in the country.
- ◆ In 1994, Nebraska led the nation in rushing at 340.0 yards per game. Nebraska has won 11 NCAA rushing titles, including nine in the last 15 seasons and five in the last seven years. NU is 139-5-0 under Osborne when rushing for 300 yards or more per game.
- ◆ Nebraska has won more conference football championships than any other Big Eight school. Including last season, the Huskers have won 31 titles outright, and shared another nine. Under Osborne, Nebraska has won or shared the Big Eight crown 11 times, including the last four.
- ◆ Nebraska has had six athletes win seven Outland Trophies (more than any other school) including offensive tackle Zach Wiegert in 1994.
- ◆ In addition to NU's Outland winners, two Huskers have won the Heisman and three brought home Lombardis. Both figures tie for the nation's lead in the last 20 years. In 1993, Trev Alberts became the first Husker to win the Butkus Award.
- ◆ Under Osborne, 41 Huskers have earned first-team All-America honors including five two-time winners for a total of 46...that's an average of two per year. In 1994, offensive tackle Zach Wiegert, offensive guard Brenden Stai and linebacker Ed Stewart earned All-America honors.
- ◆ Nebraska has had 26 first-round NFL draft picks, including 17 under Coach Osborne. In the 1972 and 1984 drafts, NU had three players selected in the first round. Under Osborne, NU has had 151 players drafted, including seven this year, an average of 6.9 per year.
- ◆ On 1994 opening day rosters, Nebraska ranked 18th in the nation with 17 players in the NFL.
- ◆ Nebraska has been on national television 131 times in the last 41 years, including 104 appearances under Coach Osborne. In the last 22 years, the Huskers have averaged 4.7 national TV broadcasts per season. In addition, there are several local and regional games shown on cable each year.
- ◆ Nebraska's radio network covers 17 states and 50 stations.
- ◆ Under Osborne in the last 22 years, Nebraska has played 89 games against ranked teams, that's over four per year, 47 have been against top 10 teams.
- ◆ Husker players on the 1995 roster hail from 26 states.
- ◆ Nebraska is only the third Division I-A school to have two football coaches post 100 victories, back-to-back. With Bob Devaney's 101 wins, and Osborne's 219, NU has posted a 320-67-5 record in the past 33 years for an .823 winning percentage.

QUALITY TEACHERS FOR QUALITY EDUCATION

Hitachi and CFA Award Clint Brown Teaching Scholarship

"A child miseducated is a child lost."

-- John F. Kennedy

The future of this great nation lies with the success of educating its youth. No one is more aware of that than Hitachi, Ltd. and the College Football Association.

For that reason, Hitachi and the CFA joined forces in 1992 to initiate the "Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow" program. Three years later, it remains the largest corporate-funded scholarship program in college football.

The program provides $5,000 scholarships to students at each of the 67 CFA member institutions who have excelled in academics and harbor a desire to pursue teaching as a profession. The scholarship funding can be used to defray the cost of the recipient's graduate studies or certification requirements in the field of education.

Clint Brown was selected as Nebraska's 1994 recipient of the "Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow" scholarship.

"Education as a career is changing," says Brown. "I have learned this in college and I feel that I can bring a 'new and fresh' form of teaching to the students. A teaching style that will help youth and motivate them to learn."

In 1994 Brown served as the number two Sam linebacker playing in every game except Oklahoma. He had 18 tackles (eight solo) including one tackle for a loss, one fumble recovery and one interception.

The program was conceived in response to a forecast by the U.S.

Department of Education showing a critical need for quality teachers in America at all grade levels.

By encouraging young men and women to pursue teaching as a career and in sharing their mutual goals of improving education, Hitachi and the CFA are confident they will help today's students to become tomorrow's quality educators.

The "Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow" program provides an opportunity for college football and the world's sixth largest corporation to work together in a partnership that cements a basic philosophy of each organization focusing on the importance of education. By granting scholarships to individuals who aspire to pursue a career in teaching, the program endeavors to upgrade both the quality and number of people entering the teaching profession.

Those eligible for scholarships are senior or graduate student football players, student coaches, student managers and student trainers. Applicants must intend to pursue a career in education.

"The most rewarding aspect of our three-year partnership with the CFA has been the positive impact this program has had in helping America's students," says Koichi Ueno, president of Hitachi America, Ltd. "Since it is education that empowers each of us, we are pleased to have formed such a powerful partnership with the CFA."

The national spokesman for the "Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow" program is Gale Sayers. Well known for his illustrious collegiate and professional football career, Sayers set an example by pursuing an advanced degree in education and later served as a college administrator. Today, a successful businessman, Sayers tours the country, speaking out on the importance of education.

"The need for role models who exhibit leadership, motivation and team spirit is greater than ever," Gale Sayers stresses.

"Even though football does not last forever, it does offer skills and leadership qualities that do," says Sayers. "The 'Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow' winners recognize that, unlike athletic careers, education is the only thing that can never be taken away from them."

For 145 players, 29 student trainers, 11 student managers, 14 student coaches, and two student academic assistants, receiving the "Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow" scholarship has helped to punctuate that theory.

"The CFA believes that football provides a training ground that will assist in the preparation for those seeking a career in education," says Chuck Neinas, executive director of the CFA. "Whether it be as a player or in a support role, football is hard work, and it teaches leadership, discipline and team spirit -- all attributes that can be transferred to the classroom."

These are the qualities shared by each of this year's 67 award winners, qualities that will help shape our country into the 21st century.

New Facilities To Boost IANR Research, Services

By Dick Fleming
IANR Communications

Top: This is the new Research Education Building at the IANR Agricultural Research and Development Center near Ithaca. The facility includes offices, meeting rooms and laboratories for IANR faculty, ARDC staff members and the Saunders County Cooperative Extension offices. The facility is designed to showcase ARDC activities.

Center: The greenhouse on the right looked like the one on the left before renovation. The covering had deteriorated to the point that transmission of light was reduced by more than 75 percent. During renovation, new insulation and computer temperature controls were installed.

Bottom: Bob Meduna (left), Saunders County extension educator, and Dan Duncan, director of the IANR Agricultural Research and Development Center, are at the entrance of the new Research and Education Building.

Two Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources facilities will be dedicated this fall — a new Research and Education Building at Ithaca and renovated greenhouses on the East Campus.

The $2.89 million new Research and Education Building at the IANR Agricultural Research and Development Center near Ithaca will be dedicated at 1:30 p.m. Oct. 10. The building is at the southeast corner of the intersection of Nebraska Highway 63 and County Road 11 in Saunders County.

Guest speaker at the event will be Duane Acker of Atlantic, Iowa, the first vice chancellor of IANR and former president of Kansas State University. Prior to the dedication, there will be a regional symposium on "Agriculture People . . . Building a Shared Environment" Oct. 9-10 in the building.

The new building contains offices, meeting rooms and laboratories for use by faculty and staff, as well as offices for the Cooperative Extension Service in Saunders County. The facility is designed to showcase activities at ARDC to the public.

Renovated greenhouses operated by the departments of agronomy, entomology, horticulture and plant pathology on the UNL East Campus will be dedicated Nov. 10. Tours will begin at 11 a.m. that morning.

The original covering of the 24 greenhouses had deteriorated to the point that transmission of light was reduced by more than 75 percent, hardly suitable for growing plants. While being renovated at a cost of $2.1 million, new insulation and up-to-date computer controls for temperature were installed. These state-of-the-art facilities enable IANR faculty to conduct cutting-edge plant science research.

Funds for the Research and Education Building were provided by the Nebraska Legislature and private donations. Funds for the greenhouses were provided by the legislature, the State Energy Fund, IANR and departments.

IANR Lawn And Garden Festival Breaks Attendance Records

By Bettina Heinz Hurst
IANR Communications

Top: More than 4,300 people participated in the Festival of Color Sept. 9 at the IANR Agricultural Research and Development Center near Ithaca.

A crisp fall day and interest in water-conserving landscaping drew a record 4,300 visitors to the Festival of Color Sept. 9. The third annual lawn and garden open house sponsored by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Department of Horticulture at the Agricultural Research and Development Center near Ithaca stressed environmentally sound landscaping and gardening practices.

Crowd favorites included the landscaping talks and demonstrations as well as the guided tours through the site, a new feature this year. As in previous years, many visitors brought in plants to be diagnosed by Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources experts.

Vendors and a food court rounded out the event for the visitors. The number of vendors participating shows the good partnership between the University and private business, according to Amy Greving and Don Steinegger, festival coordinators.

Youngsters learned how to test lake water for turbidity using a secchi disk, built wells in cups and played the "Water Wheel of Fortune."

The festival was sponsored by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Region VII through the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality, Nebraska Nursery and Landscape Association, Nebraska Turf Foundation, Earl May Seed and Nursery, Limited Partnership and the university's Water Center/Environmental Programs unit, Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources and Agricultural Research and Development Center.

Hi Mom!

Instructions:

Scout out nearby television cameras. Hold program high above head and start screaming at the top of your lungs. We sincerely hope you get spotted on TV. (And after the game, stop in for burgers, fajitas, ribs and a cold beer or margarita.)
